My Dear Parish Family:
This Sunday, we celebrate the Ascension of our Lord: Jesus leaving this world and returning to God, His Father. In loving obedience, Jesus died for our sins. The Father knew His son's love and welcomed Him into the glory of His heavenly kingdom.

In his letter to the Ephesians, Saint Paul wants us to understand, that through "a Spirit of wisdom and revelation" we may know the wonder and glory that God has prepared for us. From the moment of conception, we are on a pilgrimage finding God in new ways: through the people who influence our lives, the stranger we encounter, and the events that bring us joy and sorrow. Through the resurrection and ascension of Jesus, and in the Spirit, we are summoned to see another side of pilgrimage: "going somewhere else in order to bring God in a new way to that place." (Pilgrimage in the Footsteps of Jesus")

God has called each one of us be witnesses to Jesus Christ. In the first reading, Jesus assured the apostles that through the Holy Spirit, they would give witness to him "to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1:8) This is your call and mine as we walk this pilgrimage emulating Jesus …to live in the love of our Father and follow His will. Our call to be witnesses "to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8) tells us that everywhere in the world can be a holy land …our homes, the marketplace, classrooms, wherever He takes us. The disciples walked and lived with Jesus while He was on this earth. It is in His resurrection, ascension, and through the Spirit, that we now live in Him. The way we live, what we say, what we stand for, and what we believe...this is what we bring to people who live in darkness, who are searching, afraid to commit and answer His call. This, too, is where we discover God's presence in the people and places we least expect.

Today, we welcome Father Ryan Mann, who is celebrating a Mass of Thanksgiving here at Holy Rosary. Father Ryan was ordained last week, May 17th, at the Cathedral of Saint John the Evangelist. Father Ryan's commitment to the priesthood was his response God's call. In his pilgrimage, Father Ryan has promised obedience and with the help of the Holy Spirit, will bring the words of Jesus through the Gospel to wherever his ministry takes him.

As Jesus ascended up to the heavens, the apostles looked up. They heard his final commission and followed his commands. We may look up to the sky when we think of heaven as did the apostles, but heaven is beyond our understanding. We do know though, that we are never alone in our mission … Jesus promised us, "I am with you always, until the end of the age."

In Christ,
Anne DeMarco, Pastoral Associate

Culture of Life at Holy Rosary Parish

Baby Bottles – "Change for Life" Collection for Womankind

Holy Rosary invites you to collect your spare change in a baby bottle to support Womankind, a Catholic volunteer organization in Cleveland dedicated to the obstetrical support of women during the first two trimesters of their pregnancies. Because so many people now use credit cards as a form of currency, paper currency and checks endorsed to Womankind are also accepted. Support Womankind…support LIFE. Bottles were distributed after most Masses on Mother's Day weekend – MORE BOTTLES ARE AVAILABLE FROM THE USHERS THIS WEEKEND and filled bottles and donations will be collected on Father's Day, June 15th. Thank you for your generosity!

The Gospel of Life...

"This exhortation should resound with special force in the hearts of those members of the Church who directly share, in different ways, in her mission as "teacher" of the truth. May it resound above all for us who are Bishops: we are the first ones called to be untiring preachers of the Gospel of life. We are also entrusted with the task of ensuring that the doctrine, which is once again being set forth in this Encyclical is faithfully handed on in its integrity. We must use appropriate means to defend the faithful from all teaching which is contrary to it." (St. John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae)

… In the World.

Ottawa Archbishop Terrence Prendergast has issued a statement in response to Catholic Liberal leader Justin Trudeau's new policy that only "pro-choice" candidates will be endorsed to run as candidates in his party. It is a more extreme position than any other Liberal leader has taken on this issue, on which MPs have been traditionally been free to vote their conscience.

Entitled, "Being in Communion with the Catholic Church on Moral Issues," the Archbishop's letter says, "One may not dissent from these core teachings on life issues and be considered a Catholic in good standing...The position of the Catholic Church in favor of life at all stages is clear and unchanging... "A person who takes a position in contradiction to the teaching of the Catholic Church on the value and dignity of human life from the moment of conception to the moment of a natural death, and persists in this belief, is not in communion with the Church's values and teaching, which we believe faithfully transmit for today the teachings of Christ."

Holy Rosary Tuition Assistance Program

The Diocese encourages parishes who do not operate a Catholic School to provide assistance for children whose families are registered at that parish to attend a Catholic grade school. This program subsidizes an amount sufficient to cover the difference between parishioner & non-parishioner tuition rates at area Catholic grade schools and allows families to remain active parishioners of their home parish.

Any parish family with children enrolled in Kindergarten through 8th grade at a Catholic elementary school, and who are not currently participating in the parish tuition assistance program, are invited to contact Father Joe Previte at the Parish Office at (216) 421-2995 regarding specifics.

"The First of Human Rights": Religious Liberty, the U.S. Supreme Court, and the HHS/Contraception Mandate

In a far-reaching ruling, the High Court will soon decide who has the better claim: the federal government seeking to impose its contraception mandate or the two Christian family businesses that object to it.
