“YOUTH MINISTER’S PEN” REACH OUT—REACH IN

Recently, three St. Bruno students and I participated in REACH OUT—REACH IN, a LOCAL Mission Trip sponsored by the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Students lived in community at St. Monica Parish in Whitefish Bay. They were divided into 13 different work groups, and each day the groups went out into the Milwaukee Metro area to provide service to various organizations. Some of the agencies served included: House of Peace, Catholic Charities Adult Day Services, St. Ann Intergenerational Care Center, Meta House, Easter Seals Recreation Center, Notre Dame Middle School, and Wellspring Organic Farm. Students provided a variety of services including painting, farm work, child care, tutoring, sorting clothes and school supplies, spending time with disabled children and the elderly, and with children who are victims of abuse and violence. In the evening, students and staff shared their experiences from the different job sites, and had the opportunity to learn more about Catholic Social Justice.

The term “Mission Trip” usually implies traveling a distance to do God’s work. However, this close-to-home experience was definitely a chance to get out of our comfort zone, to live simply, and to really see the NEED right here in our OWN Archdiocese! What an eye-opener!

Have you ever heard about the Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching? Students learned about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society. Those seven themes are:

Life & Dignity of the Human Person; Call to Family, Community, and Participation; Rights and Responsibilities; Option for the Poor and Vulnerable; The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers; Solidarity; and Care for God’s Creation. Students were challenged to determine which of these Catholic Social Teachings applied to their assigned work site. The simple lesson is that ALL of us have a responsibility to be workers and advocates for people and the earth. We have been given so much, and it is our duty to be of service to those in need.

My job site was the Easter Seals Recreation Center. This organization provides a day camp for children and young adults with significant cognitive and physical disabilities. The first day was a bit intimidating—not knowing about the limitations, expectations, or how to communicate with a non-verbal camper. It didn’t take long for my group of students to get to know the campers! Our job was just to spend time with the campers, playing games, taking walks, doing art projects, and having FUN. One of my best memories was playing a game of “Freeze Dance”. I pushed Joey in his wheelchair during this game, and while he is non-verbal and a quadriplegic, everyone knew he was having a blast because of his smile and infectious laugh. I love the motto for Easter Seals, “Turning disabilities into abilities”. The kids get to be kids!

It’s my personal goal to bring a larger group of our students to REACH OUT—REACH IN next summer!

THE SYNOD OF 2014

As you well know, the Archdiocesan Synod was celebrated on June 6, 7 & 8, 2014 (Pentecost Weekend). Many fruits of that experience have been felt by the 400 delegates who participated. But what about those of us who didn’t attend the Synod? How do we “catch” the Spirit of those days and the issues discussed and prayed over?

For the next several weeks, until the Archbishop publishes his “Synod Declaration” on September 14, 2014, you will see different Synod-related articles about our Catholic Identity. This past week’s bulletin insert was entitled Catholic Identity: The Faithful Discern Aspects of Liturgy. There were some short, meaningful excerpts from the 14-page background paper that Marquette Theology Professor, Fr. John Lawrence, S.J., wrote as a tool in preparation for the Synod delegates. In addition to a few of his theological reflections, the latter part of the bulletin insert shared what the two most significant liturgical initiatives and priorities were in the background paper and gathered in discussion and prayer regarding seven different liturgical initiatives.) PLEASE GO BACK AND READ LAST WEEK’S BULLETIN INSERT! Check out these top two liturgical initiatives! Reflect on them and be open to their fulfillment!

This week’s Catholic Identity mission area featured in our bulletin is “Cultural Diversity”. Please read with a prayerful heart a few of the rich reflections that Eva Diaz shares from her background paper, and then check out the two top priorities voted for by the Synod Delegates relating to Cultural Diversity.

May the Spirit of the Lord empower and enlighten us day by day!

~Fr. Ralph

JOHN MEZYDLO'S DIACONATE ORDINATION NOTIFICATION II

Before a man is ordained a Deacon, the proper Pastor of that individual must publish three notifications, as a final pre-ordination inquiry about his suitability for ordination or any questionable concerns about the man. John Mezydlo's deacon ordination is scheduled for September 6, at 10:00 a.m. at St. John the Evangelist Cathedral in Milwaukee. Are there any impediments to John being ordained a deacon that anyone is aware of? Contact Fr. Ralph!

PRAYER MINISTRY STARTING AT ST. BRUNO

We have a new Prayer Ministry at St. Bruno. Several parishioners have been trained to provide one-on-one prayer with parishioners who have special intentions. At the end of Mass, Prayer Ministers will make an announcement to let the congregation know that they are available to pray with anyone who has a need. This is a personal prayer time, and prayer intentions will be kept confidential.

Why Prayer Ministry?

We are simply doing as Jesus did! In Luke 4:40, at the start of Jesus' ministry, we are told that: "When the sun was setting, the people brought to Jesus all who had various kinds of sickness, and laying His hands on each one, He healed them". In Mark 6:5, we read how Jesus visited His hometown of Nazareth, but encountered such a lack of faith that "He could not do any miracles there, except lay His hands on a few sick people and heal them". In Matthew 19:13, we are told that "little children were brought to Jesus for Him to place His hands on them and pray for them". Jesus clearly saw the laying on of hands as an important way to pray with people.

If you are interested in becoming a Prayer Minister or have questions, please contact Amy Golden at 262-402-8229, or Karen Warnes at 414-807-8453.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel, Jesus says: "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves", and taking the five loaves and two fish, He blessed them and gave them to the disciples to feed the crowd.

Like the story of the "loaves and fishes", this month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist many families, providing money for food, utility and rent bills, etc. Thank You!

COMFORTERS NEEDED

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

The answer is b)

Relativism and Subjectivism also affect the way one looks at morality and religion. "From this point of view, there are no absolutely impermissible moral choices. Likewise, there is no spiritual truth that demands obedience. Allegedly, it all depends on one's intention or surrounding circumstances."
(Pastoral Letter, Archbishop Listecky)

FOCCUS COUPLES NEEDED

We are in NEED of married couples that would be willing to help engaged couples in their preparation for marriage. FOCCUS is a tool to help couples learn more about themselves and the manner in which they relate to their partner. The FOCCUS couple helps this process of communication through guiding the engaged couple through the FOCCUS inventory. This ministry is not only for the engaged couple, but also for the married couple that guides them through the process. As they discuss the inventory with the engaged couple, many married couples will also think about and strengthen their own marriages. As they teach, they learn and grow. It might be a great ministry for you. Please think about it, pray about it, and if you have any questions, please call Fr. Ralph or Fr. Chuck.

The Nazareth Project has scheduled a day-long FOCCUS training on Saturday, August 23, 2014, at Christ King Parish (held in the School), 2646 N. Swan Blvd., Wauwatosa, for those wishing to become FOCCUS Couples. The cost for the training is $100.00 per couple and includes lunch. The Parish will take care of the cost of the program.

For more information and/or to sign-up, you can go to the webpage: <http://www.johnpaul2center.org/NazarethProject/EngagedEnrichment/FOCCUS.htm> or come by the Parish Office for a sign-up sheet. Thank you for considering this ministry. We need more members for this important ministry.
