

Switching Places—Roles

Role 1: You are sick or injured and can't get food for yourself. How do you feel? What do you need from others?

Role 2: You are a friend that wants to help. What can you offer your friend?

Role 1: You have just lost your pet. How do you feel? What would help?

Role 2: You are a friend that wants to offer comfort and cheer up your friend. What can you do to help?

Role 1: You are a shy basketball player that usually stays in the background. You miss a shot that loses a big game. How do you feel? What do you need to feel better?

Role 2: You are the star basketball player and had a great game. How can you be a team player and help make your teammate feel better?

Role 1: You are a neighbor with a beautiful flower garden that you love. Recently the garden has been destroyed by a storm. How do you feel? What would help you?

Role 2: You are the next door neighbor and want to help. The flower garden is not really important to you, but you can tell your neighbor is sad. What can you do to help?