Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

WFCC MISSION STATEMENT: WE, the members of Immaculate Conception Parish of Moville and St. Michael Parish of Kingsley, being clustered in the Diocese of Sioux City, Iowa, ARE a Catholic Christian people, living the Paschal Mystery, united in creed, worship, and love for each other.

Our Mission is: ...to worship and praise our God. ...to educate and promote spiritual growth of our people of all ages. ...to serve each other within the Church, helping all members grow in their relationship with God and with one another. ...to live the Gospel through a ministry of hospitality with all our sisters and brothers in the global community.

VISIT <http://icmoville.catholicweb.com> to find more information about both parishes, to read and/or download this weekly bulletin, to read the latest news, and to learn more about our faith.

FROM THE PASTOR:

-to all of our ministers who are faithfully present or find a substitute when unable to serve and who are present in the sacristy 5 minutes before Mass to pray with the other ministers.

-to everyone who shares your time, talent, and treasure with the church community.

Today is the Fourth (4th) Sunday in Ordinary Time. Not all people are called to be a Moses or a Saint Paul, but each of us can speak out against injustices in our society. We can live the teachings of Jesus in our families and in the workplace. We can be the messenger of God's love and forgiveness to someone whom no one else can reach. Such service can bring us great joy.

May God bless you.

YOUNG CAT QUOTE: The Youth Catechism, written in language suitable for young people, deals with the entire Catholic faith as it was presented in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The numbers after each question/answer refer to more extensive and in-depth treatments in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, CCC for short.

QUESTION #118: What happened on Pentecost?

Fifty days after his Resurrection, the Lord sent the Holy Spirit down from heaven upon his disciples. The age of the Church began.

On Pentecost the Holy Spirit transformed fearful apostles into courageous witnesses to Christ. In a very short time, thousands had themselves baptized: it was the birthday of the Church. The miracles of the languages on Pentecost shows that the Church is there for all peoples from the very beginning: She is universal and missionary. She speaks to all men, overcomes ethnic and linguistic barriers, and can be understood by all. To this day the Holy Spirit is the "soul" of the Church, the essential principle of her life.

TOTUS TUUS TEACHER APPLICATIONS 2015 are now being accepted! If you know of any college age students who you think would make a great Totus Tuus teacher, please encourage them to apply. We greatly desire to hire teachers from our own Diocese -- youth that we can mentor in their own faith life in a unique way and who will then go back into our parishes to mentor and evangelize others. Applications can be found on the Diocese of Sioux City's website under Ministries » New Evangelization » Totus Tuus » "For Teachers" tab.

UPCOMING EVENTS FROM THE DIOCESAN Office of New Evangelization:

- Men's Conference, Saturday 21 March 2015 in Le Mars.

WHAT IS NFP?

GETTING BEYOND "I CAN'T" by Fr. Daniel McCaffrey, STD and Fr. Matthew Habiger, OSB, PhD

God's plan for spousal love calls for a total gift of self to one's spouse and the acceptance of her total gift of self in kind. Contraception makes such an unconditional gift impossible. Natural Family Planning fosters these values, and cooperates with them.

Everywhere we go we find married couples asking, "Why won't our priests address the issue of contraception and sterilization from the pulpit?" Having heard these frustrated questions many times, we think it is time to list the top eight excuses and address them:

6. "When the bishop talks about it, I'll begin to talk about it."

One can understand why a priest or deacon would hesitate to take the initiative in teaching values that have been largely ignored since 1968. We have a right to expect our spiritual fathers, the bishops, to lead by their example in addressing these serious matters. This is their duty as moral guides and spiritual leaders of a diocese. They are to be the good shepherd for the entire diocese. But what happens if they do not speak out? Is the pastor justified in keeping silent? When priests die, the Lord will not ask them "What did the bishop do?" He will ask, "What did you do? You are the pastor of your people." Priesthood comes from the Lord, not from another human being. Priests' obligations go to the Lord, before they go to any of His human representatives. God holds priests accountable for what they do, for their choices and actions, and taking responsibility for themselves and their people. True leadership means that priests address the real needs of our times, regardless of what others are not doing. Reprehensible negligence does not justify other reprehensible negligence. Perhaps what needs to be done in a diocese where the bishop chooses not to address these issues is to have many of the clergy give him their assurance that they will support his giving a public teaching. Perhaps the bishop is concerned that if he takes any initiative in these matters, then his clergy will publicly refuse to comply, as happened when Humanae Vitae was first promulgated. Everyone admires leadership, but where will leadership arise? We think that the good Lord expects all of priests to be spiritual and moral leaders. [continued next week...]

A THOUGHT: "His ignorance is encyclopedic" - Abba Eban (1915-2002)

RESPECT FOR LIFE: "The concerns for non-violence, sustainable development, justice and peace, and care for our environment are of vital importance for humanity. They cannot, however, be understood apart from a profound reflection upon the innate dignity of every human life from conception to natural death: a dignity conferred by God Himself and thus inviolable." — Pope Benedict XVI, "Welcoming Celebration by the Young People"

From the Code of Canon Law (the law of the Roman Catholic Church) ON THE TEMPORAL GOODS OF THE CHURCH

can. 1255 The universal Church and the Apostolic See, the particular churches as well as any other juridic person, whether public or private, are capable of acquiring, retaining, administering and alienating temporal goods in accord with the norm of law.

VOCATION VIEW: People were spellbound by the teachings of Jesus. The church needs bold teachers and preachers. Consider a vocation to priesthood or religious life. (Mark 1:21-28)

STEWARDSHIP: Moses told the people, "The Lord will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own kinsmen." God still provides among His people the gifts and talents necessary to continue the work of His Church. What gifts are yours to share? See Deuteronomy 18:15

IF YOU ARE HOSPITALIZED: Because of privacy laws, when you or a family member is hospitalized, hospitals are not permitted to contact your pastor unless you inform the admitting personnel you wish to have your pastor notified. Otherwise, you or a member of your family should contact the parish office if you wish a visit. Please keep the parish office informed of your pastoral needs so your needs can be addressed in a timely fashion and you can be remembered in prayer.
