ADORATION PRESENTATION, Wednesday, November 14, 6:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. St. Joseph's Church - Anthon. Robin Corzilius, member of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women (DCCW), will be our guest speaker for this presentation. She will discuss many things regarding Eucharistic Adoration such as "What is Eucharistic Adoration?", "What is a Holy Hour?", "What should you do during Eucharistic Adoration and Holy Hour?" Why are they both important in strengthening your Catholic faith and in experiencing a deep personal relationship with Christ?" As she quotes Bishop Sheen, "Sitting before the Presence of the Blessed Sacrament is like a body exposing itself before the sun to absorb its rays. During this time, we do not so much rely on written prayer, but we listen... We do not say: 'Listen Lord, for Thy servant speaks'; but... 'Speak, Lord, for Thy servant hears!'" We hope that you all will mark November 14th down on your calendar and plan to attend this presentation being sponsored by our local Catholic Daughters Court Holy Rosary #1602. Refreshments will be served in the church hall immediately after the presentation.

- November 18 Youth Mass, NO youth breakfast
- November 21 No Faith Formation
- November 28 Faith Formation for PK-4, 5-8, and CICC
- WHY HAS FAITH FORMATION CLASS TIMES BEEN EXTENDED? At the end of the school year Woodbury Central informed me that early dismissals would be changing to one Wednesday a month beginning the fall of 2018. I began to wonder how this would affect Faith Formation. I sought advice from Msgr. Duchaine. He recommended me to speak to with the Faith Formation Team and catechists. The pros and cons of keeping class every Wednesday vs cancelling classes on early dismissals were weighed by the Faith Formation Team. The catechists were asked to share their thoughts on the different options. I then took that information back to Msgr. Duchaine. We discussed the options and Msgr. provided me with his recommendation. I went with his recommendation because he has the final say in all decisions.
