Pastors Corner

Sunday June 9 is Pentecost Sunday. Make a statement and wear red to Mass! Don't forget about our Parish Picnic that day which should be a fun time for all!

I'm hoping to conduct a parish-wide census in the coming months. This will help me to know who lives in our parish borders, which stretch from Poughquag to Dover. I would like to provide current information to the envelope company on parishioner's names and addresses. Since my arrival some of you have wondered why you're not getting envelopes. I'm not sure why either, but in conducting a census we can do our best to correct that. The census form will ask you to register your name and family with the parish. Even if you've registered before, doing this will give me an accurate database. I'm asking everyone who attends Mass out our two churches to cooperate in this endeavor. The form will also have a box to indicate whether you want to receive an envelope or not. New envelope numbers may be assigned as we organize all the names in our parish. Have a blessed week, Fr. JP

Lesson 2

"I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth ..."

What do we mean when we say that God is the Supreme Being? When we say that God is the Supreme Being, we mean that He is above all creatures, the self-existing, and infinitely perfect Spirit. I am the First, and I am the Last, and besides me there is no God. (Isaiah 44:6)

What is a spirit? A spirit is a being that has understanding and free will, but no body, and will never die. To whom then have you likened God? Or what image will you make for Him? (Isaiah 40:18)

What do we mean when we say that God is self-existing? When we say that God is self-existing we mean that He does not owe His existence to any other being. I am who am. (Exodus 3:14)

What do we mean when we say that God is infinitely perfect? When we say that God is infinitely perfect we mean that He has all perfections without limit. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and of his greatness there is no end. (Psalm 144:3)

Council of Jerusalem: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Sixth Sunday of Easter

The first Church council, the Council of Jerusalem we hear about in today's First Reading, decided the shape of the Church as we know it.

Some Jewish Christians had wanted Gentile converts to be circumcised and obey all the complex ritual and purity laws of the Jews.

The council called this a heresy, again showing us that the Church in the divine plan is meant to be a worldwide family of God, no longer a covenant with just one nation.

Today's Liturgy gives us a profound meditation on the nature and meaning of the Church.

The Church is one, as we see in the First Reading: "the Apostles [bishops] and presbyters [priests], in agreement with the whole Church [laity]."

The Church is holy, taught and guided by the Spirit that Jesus promises the Apostles in the Gospel.

The Church is catholic, or universal, making known God's ways of salvation to all peoples, ruling all in equity, as we sing in today's Psalm.

And the Church, as John sees in the Second Reading, is apostolic, founded on the Twelve Apostles of the Lamb.

All these marks of the Church are underscored in the story of the council.

Notice that everybody, including Paul, looks to "Jerusalem [and] . . . the Apostles" to decide the Church's true teaching. The Apostles, too, presume that Christian teachers need a "mandate from us."

And we see the Spirit guiding the Apostles in all truth. Notice how they describe their ruling: "It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us."

Knowing these truths about the Church, our hearts should never be troubled. The Liturgy's message today is that the Church is the Lord's, watched over and guarded by the Advocate, the Holy Spirit sent by the Father in the name of the Son.

This should fill us with confidence, free us to worship with exultation, inspire us to rededicate our lives to His Name—to love Jesus in our keeping of His Word, to rejoice that He and the Father in the Spirit have made their dwelling with us.

Yours in Christ, Scott.
