QUO VADIS DAYS is a 3-day camp for young Catholic men to learn more about the priesthood, to deepen their faith, and to better discern God’s call in their lives. Quo Vadis” is the Latin phrase for “Where are you going?” Legend tells us that St. Peter asked Jesus this question on the outskirts of Rome. And we know where Jesus went in response to His Father’s will.

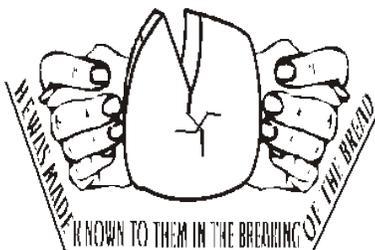

There will be priests, seminarians, and other young men like you gathered for these days. Our activities will include prayer, swimming, soccer, games, talks and discussions. It is a great opportunity to let the Lord speak to you and to spend time listening to Him. The number of participants is limited to 70 young men, so call or register soon! The camp will be held July 31st to August 2rd at Koinonia Camp, near Cle Elum. For more information and to register for the Yakima camp, call Father Felipe Pulido at 509-248-1911 or Seminarian Michael Kelly at (509) 367-5297 or via email: michael.kelly@yakimadiocese.net.

DID NOT THE CHRIST HAVE TO SUFFER?

Jesus puts his finger on one of the critical questions of the Old Testament. The common belief was that the Messiah or Christ would be a conquering hero. He would triumph over all his enemies, like a knight in shining armor. This explains the quandary of the two disciples. They had expected a magnificent fate for Jesus. He would defeat his foes in a spectacular manner. Instead he died in an ignominious execution like a criminal. Jesus solves this by reinterpreting the messianic prophecies. He illustrates that suffering was an inevitable factor in the prophets' expectations. Gradually he wins over the two disciples and they become excited with this new vision of events.
