NEXT WEEK IS DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY: Divine Mercy Sunday is a very special Sunday when the Divine

Floodgates from Heaven are wide-opened and Jesus offers us the total forgiveness of all sins and punishment to any soul who goes to Confession and receive Him in Holy Communion on that day. Our Lord's Divine Mercy grants forgiveness of all sins and punishment on the Feast of Divine Mercy, Mercy Sunday, mercy for even the most hardened sinners! Prepare yourself for His great mercy by reading about the promises Jesus made to St. Faustina and by doing the Novena, which begins on Good Friday. There is a lot of good information and a copy of the novena available at Divinemercysundayusa.com or ewtn.com. We will have devotion to the Divine Mercy on April 8. Watch the bulletin for details.

HOLDING ON TO HOPE... is the theme of Crossroads Pregnancy Resource Center's 6th Annual fundraising banquet to be held April 14 in Ephrata. We have a spot reserved for you for the dinner! If you are interested in attending, at no cost to you, contact Peggy Gray at 398-5399. The special guest speaker is Anna Hoduski. Anna is an inspiring pro-life activist that ran and biked across the United States for the pro-life movement. Doors open at 6:00 p.m.; Dinner & Program 6:30 P.M.

CONFIRMATION

for our high school candidates will be held Saturday, April 14. Due to the number of candidates at the Spanish Mass, we are asking that only candidates, sponsors and immediate members attend the Spanish Mass. The Spanish Mass will be at 4:00 p.m. and the English Mass will be at 6:30 p.m. These are the only Saturday Masses that day.

REFLECTION BY SCOTT HAHN: The tomb was empty. In the early morning darkness of that first Easter, there was only confusion for Mary Magdalene and the other disciples. But as the daylight spread, they saw the dawning of a new creation.

At first they didn't understand the Scripture, today's Gospel tells us. We don't know which precise Scripture texts they were supposed to understand. Perhaps it was the sign of Jonah, who rose from the belly of the great fish after three days (see Jonah 1:17). Or maybe Hosea's prophecy of Israel's restoration from exile (see Hosea 6:2). Perhaps it was the psalmist who rejoiced that God had not abandoned him to the nether world (see Psalm 16:9-10).

Whichever Scripture it was, as the disciples bent down into the tomb, they saw and they believed. What did they see? Burial shrouds in an empty tomb. The stone removed from the tomb. Seven times in nine verses we hear that word—"tomb."

What did they believe? That God had done what Jesus said He would do—raised Him up on the third day (see Mark 9:31; 10:34). What they saw and believed, they bore witness to, as today's First Reading tells us. Peter's speech is a summary of the gospels—from Jesus' baptism in the Jordan to His hanging on a tree (see Deuteronomy 21:22-23), to His rising from the dead.

We are children of the apostles, born into the new world of their witness. Our lives are now "hidden with Christ in God," as today's Epistle says. Like them, we gather in the morning on the first day of the week to celebrate the Eucharist, the feast of the empty tomb.

We rejoice that the stones have been rolled away from our tombs, too. Each of us can shout, as we do in today's Psalm: "I shall not die, but live." They saw and believed. And we await the day they promised would come—when we, too, "will appear with Him in glory."
