FREE PUBLIC WORKSHOP

Elder Law and Estate Planning Workshop Tuesday, June 7, 2016 at the Saugerties Knights of Columbus 6 – 8 PM.

Join five professionals who will explain exactly what the probate process involves, reasons to prepare a Trust, Medicare enrollment options, advanced planning for medical and extended care costs not covered by Medicare, intelligent tax planning and creative ways to use life insurance in the planning of wealth distribution. This workshop is for those people interested to see what they will be facing in their later years, exactly what it means to probate a Will, what happens if you don't have a Will and how planning at a young age is extremely cost effective. Who should attend this workshop: - All individuals curious about retirement and later life issues that most of us experience; - Children of parents who are starting to make plans for the distribution of lifetime accumulations; - Individuals who want to understand the legal documents that they have created already; - Young adults who wish to save money by planning for their later years now; - Seniors over the age of 62 interested in enhancing their lives by unlocking the value of their existing homes so that they can be more comfortable in their own homes. Presenters will be William Myers (Myerslawfirm12@gmail.com) Joel Cymrot (joel@joelcymrotcpa.com) Elda Gentile (egentile@RHFunding.com) Kirk Jensen (Kirk.jensen@ascipartners.com) and Annamarie Lewis (Annamarie.lewis@prudential.com). Register at myerslawfirm12@gmail.com and receive complimentary personalized Health Care Proxy and NY Living Will at the workshop.

SECOND COLLECTION – NEXT WEEKEND

"The annual Black and Indian Missions Collection, taken up in parishes across the nation, enables the Church in the United States to provide desperately required pastoral, educational and spiritual assistance to some of the neediest of our brothers and sisters in the Lord. From inner-cities of the rural south to the deserts of the southwest to the wilderness of Alaska, grants from the annual appeal make it possible for the Church to assist our Black and Indian Catholic communities. Here in the archdiocese, we receive grants twice per year that are applied to Black parishes in Harlem and the Bronx, making it possible for them to serve their parishioners much more than they could on their own. I invite you to be as generous as you can possibly be in making a sacrificial offering to this crucially important and necessary ministry of the Church."

~ Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan

RCIA

The parishioners of St. Mary of the Snow and St. Joseph Catholic Church would like to welcome any of those interested in becoming Catholic or those in need of completing their Sacraments. RCIA is a gentle process of welcoming adults into the Roman Catholic Church. Adults who have not been baptized or have been baptized in another Christian Faith are invited to be a part of our RCIA journey. For more information please contact Deacon Hank.

Show your mercy as you close wounds, cure illness, make broken bodies whole and free downcast spirits. May these special people find lasting health and deliverance, and so join us in thanking you for all your gifts. We ask this through the Lord Jesus who healed those who believed. Amen.
