our learning

Reading

In Reader's Workshop we learn procedures for reading with partners. Partners will encourage each other not to give up. In phonics we will be learning l blends. Guided Reading has been going very well. It has been a joy to read with your children everyday.

Math

Students will complete chapter 2 this week. Students will discover rules for subtracting all and none. They will review strategies for subtraction. The assessment will be 10/29 and 10/30.

Religion

In religion we are learning about Mary, the Mother of Jesus. Students will be assessed on The Sign of the Cross.

Writing

Students will continue to zoom in on details to elaborate their stories. We will begin to partner read our stories and collaborate to revise stories. Students will walking through a writing museum and share their stories with each other.

Social Studies

Students will identify members of their family and create family trees.

AR

AR tests can be taken on Monday-Thursday from 7:40-8 am. Students should read a book at home and take the test at school. A reasonable expectation is for each child to take one test each week of school. There are no AR tests on Friday.

Thank you to everyone who has helped with AR!
