our learning

Reading

In Reader's Workshop we will be preparing for our first unit celebration. Students will be selecting a book to introduce and read to a second grade partner. We have been increasing our center work to include handwriting, sight word work and phonics review. In phonics we will be learning r-blends.

Math

Students will complete the chapter 2 assessment on Monday and Tuesday. We will begin chapter 3-Addition Strategies. Students will be learning strategies for adding numbers within 20.

Religion

Students continue learning about the Holy Family. This week we will more about Mary. Students will be re-assessed on the Sign of the Cross.

Writing

Students have been doing great adding details to their stories. I am very impressed with their growth. This week we will continue to write narratives. We will be concentrating on editing by stretching out sounds and examining upper and lowercase letters

Social Studies

The students' timelines were amazing! Thank you in advance for helping your children with their grandparent interview.

homework

- Thursday: Math pg. 135 (no #5) and 136
- Grandparent Interview due 11/7
- Read for 10 minutes every night
- Sight word review every night
