our learning

Reading

Students will be starting the third unit of Reader's Workshop this week. Students will work on building their fluency skills and monitoring and self-correcting their reading. In phonics we will learn about vowel teams. This week we are working on

Math

Students will continue to explore numbers to 120 in Chapter 7. In this chapter we will be comparing numbers by looking at place value. Students will learn the symbols for greater than and less than. The assessment will be this Friday.

Religion

Students will learn how Jesus was a Peacemaker. We will explore forgiveness, and learn more about the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Writing

Students will finish revising and editing their chapter book. They will be rewriting their story and getting it ready to publish. Students will be creating a cover, an author's page and finalizing their table of contents.

Health

Students will explore healthy eating this week in health.
