The Usual Move: Head to the Car Wash

Your Healthier Move: Wash the Car Yourself!

Burn calories instead of bucks: Just 30 minutes of scrubbing can eat up 150 calories. Washing your car can be a real fitness challenge when you get your whole body involved. Soaping up the car works arms, shoulders and abs, while squatting to scrub bumpers and tires gets quads and glutes. Rope in the kids to up the fun factor. You can also make washing the car easy on the hands: Attach an ergonomic nozzle to your hose.
