Every parish in our diocese is asked to "adopt a day" of prayer each week on the sidewalk at Planned Parenthood this fall during 40 Days for Life. St. Pius X needs representation (especially young people) at first meeting to plan the largest prayer vigil for 40 Days for Life. Catholic Questions by Fr. Halladay

Why do we believe that the Bible is an inspired book? It is not because a) It inspires me. b) Bible itself says that it is inspired. (Sacred Scriptures of Hindus and Muslims too make similar claims and most of the Bible books don't make such a claim). c) "The Holy Spirit tells me the Bible is inspired." (It is a subjective argument).d) "We are "convicted" that it is the word of God, and we get a positive "feeling" that it is inspired, and that's that." (It is also a subjective argument). The Catholic position. As the first step we prove the reliability of the Bible insofar as it is history. From that we conclude that a Church with infallible teaching authority was founded by Christ. And then we take the word of that infallible Church that the Bible is inspired. Without the existence of the Church, we could never know whether the Bible is inspired. The Church infallibly teaches that the Old Testament books are also inspired because Jesus and his apostles believed in them as inspired books and taught that truth. The New Testament books are recorded and inspired history of Jesus and his Church. Inspiration of the Bible means that the Holy Spirit as principal author of Sacred Scripture influenced the sacred writers in three ways: 1) He illuminated the mind of the sacred writer. 2) Holy Spirit moved the will of the sacred writers to write freely, though infallibly, what God wished. 3. The Holy Spirit aided the sacred writers in the work of composition.
