EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME AUGUST 5, 2018

Catholic Questions by Fr. Halladay

Why do we believe in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist? We believe in the corporeal, substantial presence of Christ in the Eucharist. It means that the whole Christ is present in the consecrated host and wine – the resurrected and glorified body and blood of Christ with soul, and divinity. It is not a spiritual or symbolic presence as non-Catholics believe. It is also different from his presence in the Bible and in the praying community. Fathers of the Church starting from the first century believed it, based on John 6:45-59, Mt. 26:26-28, & 1 Cor. 11:27. In John 6:45-59, Jesus says that he is the bread from heaven, and that the bread that he will give is his flesh for the life of the world. In Mt. 26:26-28 we read: "Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." 27 And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, "Drink of it, all of you; 28 for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins" Finally, Jesus gave his apostles the commission: "Do this in remembrance of Me." The Church from the first century understood what Jesus said literally. In 1 Cor. 11:27 Saint Paul says that if we partake of the bread unworthily, we are guilty of profaning (literally, murdering) the body and blood of Christ. If the Eucharist is just a symbol, then how can we be guilty of profaning Christ's body and blood? Theologians explain how bread and wine becomes the resurrected body and blood of Jesus by "transubstantiation" – a process where "substance" of bread and wine is changed while retaining the "accidents" like color, taste, shape etc. because "nothing is impossible for God."

Many things happened in the past 32 years here in Nashville that can be explained with plausible reasons. We could call them coincidences. But, St. John Paul II reminds us: "In the designs of Providence there are no mere coincidences." So, what really happened? When we look at the history of Catholic Media Productions through the eyes of faith, we see the Holy Spirit guiding men and women on a journey of faith. Come learn and be inspired.
