Happy feast of the Assumption!

Letter from the Principal

We have had a great start to our school year! It's almost like we didn't skip a beat with summer break. The students are adjusting well and seem very eager to be back which makes my heart happy. We are so excited to have several new families and of course our returning ones as well. I've been really impressed with students arriving on time by 7:45 a.m. Let's keep it up! Parent/Student handbooks went home today with the oldest in each family. We have a new counselor, Ms. Marie, this school year. She will be here on Wednesdays. See you at next week's Orientation evening on the 21st!

Miss Patton

Next Tuesday evening we will have our Parent Orientation beginning in the gym at 6:00 p.m. There will be a brief review of school policies, additions to classrooms and curriculum, and other key topics. The evening will conclude with the opportunity to stop by classrooms and see what the students have already been up to this school year. Attendance for the evening is required. Students are welcome to join you for the evening.
