Happy birthday, Mrs. Stonehouse!

Letter from the Principal

We are just a little over a week from Fall Break, which means we are also that class to the end of the first quarter. Students need to make sure late or incomplete work is turned in. I will be out next Monday and Tuesday for the Principals' Retreat. Anyone who would like to join us next Friday for the Puppet Truck performance of The Frog Prince please do so at 10:00 in the gym.

Miss Patton

Little Lambs

Our fall fundraiser continues! The students are pumped up about the prizes. We request that order forms and monies be turned in on Wednesday, October 3rd. The school order must be in on October 5th to ensure delivery before Halloween. We'd love to have 100% participation!

All students who sell even one item will get to pull a prize from the Board of Awesome! Other prizes include out of uniform day, VIP breakfast for top seller in each grade, extra recess for top class, and Principal for the Day for the highest seller school-wide.

Please note we will be out October 8-12 for Fall Break.

Out of uniform this Friday as we go gold for kids with cancer. Students will also be receiving bracelets from American Childhood Cancer Association.

To renew all things in Christ by living, loving, and learning in the Lord
