First Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

St. Luke gives us the resolution to an early Church dispute over Gentile converts being made to first adopt Jewish ways. The Holy Spirit clearly inspires the decision.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

With its foundation on the Twelve Apostles, the heavenly Jerusalem represents the future, when God and His people will dwell together forever.

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Jesus prepares His Apostles for His departure, telling them to rejoice over it. The coming Paraclete will help them better understand all that Jesus said and did.

The Power of Prayer

FEELING STRESSED? THIS PRAYER'S FOR YOU!

Father, you are Lord of all creation, of time and space, help me to tackle the stresses and struggles I encounter today, whether in school, at home or with my friends. Give me the grace to know you are with me at every moment, in the ups and the downs. Let me never forget to speak to you and to speak about you to others in my life. Amen.

– Your friends at The Office of Youth Ministry,
Archdiocese of New York

St. Jean de Lalande, pray for us.

A Prayer to the Holy Spirit

(by Cardinal Mercier)

O Holy Spirit, beloved of my soul, I adore You. Enlighten me, guide me, strengthen me, console me. Tell me what I should do; give me Your orders. promise to submit myself to all that You desire of me and to accept all that You permit to happen to me. Let me only know Your Will.

St. Augustine's Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy. Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy. Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy. Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy. Amen.

The One Who Loves You the Most

Reflection by Marla Silbernagel,
DRE St. Patrick's Church

On the first night of my Camino, I sat down at a Pilgrims dinner in the main dining room of the Alberque, in Orrison, France. When we finished eating, each of us was invited to stand, introduce ourselves and explain why we were walking the Camino. I listened thoughtfully to the responses. I heard things like, "I want to be out of my comfort zone"; "I wanted to challenge myself"; and my personal favorite, "I just want my kids to worry about me for a change!"

One of my travel companions clearly stated that she desired to grow closer to God on this journey and, as I listened to her, I realized that I had not yet fully articulated my reason for this arduous journey.

But things changed for me the very next day, when I received a short note from a friend. It said simply, "On your journey, may you grow closer to the One who loves you the most." There it is was, right in front of me, my reason was clear.

Truthfully, I had forgotten the extent of God's love for me. In my busy world of deadlines, deal-breakers, meal prep and laundry, I lost my understanding of the complete, self-giving love of Christ...for me.

As I continued my ascent into the Pyrenees mountains, I was surrounded by astounding beauty. God unfolded the majesty of His created whole and said, "Yes, Marla. Of all the people who love you, I love you the most." Buen Camino! Marla
