The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

TODAY'S READINGS

Exodus 24:3-8. This is the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you.

Psalms 116. "I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord."

Hebrews 9:11-15. The blood of Christ will cleanse our consciences.

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26. This is my body. This is my blood of the covenant.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Do I feel different after receiving the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist? How can I take the Body and Blood of Christ that I receive in the Eucharist and make a difference in what I say and do?

FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK . . .

Thank you to Fr. Frank Lenz for taking the weekend Masses here in the parish. I am at the Spiritual Renewal Center assisting with an Engaged Encounter retreat. We had a very large group, 35 couples. I am grateful that Fr. Frank allows me the flexibility to help with this important ministry.

I also want to thank all of you who remembered me on my anniversary. I cannot believe it has been 19 years since my ordination. Celebrating an anniversary is always a good time to remember the providential hand of God that leads and directs our lives.

Gratitude also to those who have already donated an item for our annual parish raffle. As you know, this is the only fundraiser that directly benefits our Church. Although our debt to the Diocese has been paid, there are still some major maintenance projects that still need our attention. Also, we need to put some money away for large bills like unpaid DSA and insurance.

Lastly, thank you to those who volunteer to keep our parish grounds so beautiful. A great deal of sweat equity goes into the yard, flowerbeds, hedges etc. It is very noticeable and greatly appreciated. There is always so much to be grateful for it we just stop and count our blessings!

Father Kirby Hlavaty

Readings for June 10: TENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Genesis 3:9-15

After the man, Adam, had eaten of the tree, the LORD God called to the man and asked him, "Where are you?" He answered, "I heard you in the garden; but I was afraid, because I was naked, so I hid myself." Then he asked, "Who told you that you were naked? You have eaten, then, from the tree of which I had forbidden you to eat!" The man replied, "The woman whom you put here with me—she gave me fruit from the tree, and so I ate it." The LORD God then asked the woman, "Why did you do such a thing?" The woman answered, "The serpent tricked me into it, so I ate it." Then the LORD God said to the serpent: "Because you have done this, you shall be banned from all the animals and from all the wild creatures; on your belly shall you crawl, and dirt shall you eat all the days of your life. I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike at your head, while you strike at his heel."

2nd Reading: 2 Corinthians 4:13—5:1

Brothers and sisters: Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what is written, I believed, therefore I spoke, we too believe and therefore we speak, knowing that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and place us with you in his presence. Everything indeed is for you, so that the grace bestowed in abundance on more and more people may cause the thanksgiving to overflow for the glory of God. Therefore, we are not discouraged; rather, although our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. For this momentary light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to what is seen but to what is unseen; for what is seen is transitory, but what is unseen is eternal. For we know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent, should be destroyed, we have a building from God, a dwelling not made with hands, eternal in heaven.

Gospel: Mark 3:30-25

Jesus came home with his disciples. Again the crowd gathered, making it impossible for them even to eat. When his relatives heard of this they set out to seize him, for they said, "He is out of his mind." The scribes who had come from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "By the prince of demons he drives out demons." Summoning them, he began to speak to them in parables, "How can Satan drive out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand; that is the end of him. But no one can enter a strong man's house to plunder his property unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can plunder the house. Amen, I say to you, all sins and all blasphemies that people utter will be forgiven them. But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an everlasting sin." For they had said, "He has an unclean spirit." His mother and his brothers arrived. Standing outside they sent word to him and called him. A crowd seated around him told him, "Your mother and your brothers and your sisters are outside asking for you." But he said to them in reply, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."
