FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK . . .

The last two weekends, we have celebrated some important feasts in the church, namely Trinity Sunday and Corpus Christi Sunday. Today we return to our normal Sundays of Ordinary time. “Ordinary Time” falls outside the major seasons of Easter, Christmas, Advent and Lent. However, the value of this period should not be overlooked or squandered. Ordinary Time is the foundation upon which the major liturgical feasts are built. This gives us time to savor the spiritual life and the sacraments of the Church. It stretches for two-thirds of the Church calendar and provides us many opportunities to practice our faith.

The color associated with Ordinary Time is green. It is symbolic of life and growth. Different shades of the color remind us of the “levels” of growth. Like in nature, we too can start with a bright shade of green and mature into a darker hue. This mirrors our relationship with Jesus. We are called to deepen our faith through these long hot days of summer.

Most of our reading for this period of time will be taken from the Gospel of Mark. Mark writes a dramatic story centered around Jesus, Himself. The evangelist’s intent is obvious; he wants us to know that Jesus is the Son of God. Jesus is constantly on the go in Mark’s gospel inviting his disciples—and us—to follow.

May these days find you in the company of God.

Father Kirby Hlavaty

Readings for June 17: ELEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Ezekiel 17:22-24

Thus says the Lord GOD: I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar, from its topmost branches tear off a tender shoot, and plant it on a high and lofty mountain; on the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it. It shall put forth branches and bear fruit, and become a majestic cedar. Birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it, every winged thing in the shade of its boughs. And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom. As I, the LORD, have spoken, so will I do.

2nd Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:6-10

Brothers and sisters: We are always courageous, although we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous, and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.

Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

Jesus said to the crowds: "This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come." He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade." With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.
