FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK . . .

Recently, I issued these notes for funeral preparations; however, they are worth repeating.

Every person is entitled to a Christian burial. This is the fundamental position of our Catholic faith.

For a practicing Catholic, this typically means a vigil the night before where Scripture, rosary (prayers) and eulogies are shared. The following day, Mass is prayed for the deceased followed by a graveside service of committal. If circumstances warrant, then the vigil may be omitted, and a Rosary is prayed prior to the start of Mass.

If the person is Catholic but not a member of our parish and/or living out of town, but will be buried in our cemetery, then the funeral Mass is done in the parish where they are living. If the priest or deacon of that parish who does the funeral service will not travel for the burial, then local Catholic clergy can do the graveside service.

If the person is not Catholic or not practicing their Catholic faith, then other options exist, namely a service directly from the funeral home and/or a graveside service. In these situations, Mass may not be appropriate and requires consultation with the pastor.

It is necessary to make all arrangements with the parish directly. The family of the deceased should contact the parish office. If this must be done outside of business hours, then call the rectory (771-3325). Funeral Masses are typically scheduled at 10:00 in the morning.

Father Kirby Hlavaty

THANK YOU!

These past six years here as Youth Minister for Assumption parish has been the best job I've ever had. I will truly miss all the youth from our parish and the many parents I have gotten to know. I thank you all for your support and prayers you have given to Youth Ministry and for me as I begin this new journey in my life. Thank all of you for coming to my receptions last weekend and supporting me with prayers, gifts, and words of encouragement.

Special thanks to all Catechists who have volunteered and worked with me and Youth Ministry. You have greatly contributed to the success of our program. Special thanks to the Guadalupana Society for the new cassock and surplice.

St. Joseph of Cupertino, patron of students and studies, pray for us. My new address will be:

Joey Sablatura

Holy Apostles College & Seminary

Readings for August 19: TWENTIETH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Proverbs 9:1-6

Wisdom has built her house, she has set up her seven columns; she has dressed her meat, mixed her wine, yes, she has spread her table. She has sent out her maidens; she calls from the heights out over the city: "Let whoever is simple turn in here; To the one who lacks understanding, she says, Come, eat of my food, and drink of the wine I have mixed! Forsake foolishness that you may live; advance in the way of understanding."

2nd Reading: Ephesians 5:15-20

Brothers and sisters: Watch carefully how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise, making the most of the opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore, do not continue in ignorance, but try to understand what is the will of the Lord. And do not get drunk on wine, in which lies debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and playing to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father.

Gospel: John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the crowds: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."
