FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK . . .

As many of you will remember, we once had a Catholic school in our parish. In 1972, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary school officially closed. Nevertheless, Catholic education still has an important impact on our Church. The Catholic Lighthouse newspaper reports, “the Diocese of Victoria is blessed to have 15 Catholic schools on 13 campuses with 2820 enrolled students for the 2018-19 school year.”

It is important that we as a parish continue to support Catholic Schools in our diocese so that they can continue the tradition of Catholic Education. To that end, there will be a Day of Giving on January 30.

From the website of the Diocese of Victoria:

The day of giving will be January 29-30, 2019 from 12PM EST-12PM EST. MasterCard, Visa and Discover will be the only accepted forms of payment (American Express and Diners Club are not eligible). A receipt will be sent directly to your email once your gift has been made. You can give to as many schools/dioceses as you would like. Your gift will go only to the diocese/ school you have selected and your donor information will not be shared with any other school or organization.

Don't forget to let others know that you participated. Share on your social media networks and challenge your former teachers, classmates, and friends to give as well! Remember—Many Gifts, One Nation will only be available for 24 hours.

Thank you for your generosity! Donate: <https://victoriadiocese.giving.factsmgt.com>

I just might add, that you can always make a direct donation to the Catholic School of your choice, or you can send a donation here and I will forward it as you direct.

Readings for FEBRUARY 3: Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19

The word of the LORD came to me, saying: Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. But do you gird your loins; stand up and tell them all that I command you. Be not crushed on their account, as though I would leave you crushed before them; for it is I this day who have made you a fortified city, a pillar of iron, a wall of brass, against the whole land: against Judah's kings and princes, against its priests and people. They will fight against you but not prevail over you, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD.

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 13:4-13

Brothers and sisters: Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts. But I shall show you a still more excellent way. If I speak in human and angelic tongues, but do not have love, I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge; if I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing. Brothers and sisters: Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails. If there are prophecies, they will be brought to nothing; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will be brought to nothing. For we know partially and we prophesy partially, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I used to talk as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I put aside childish things. At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known. So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Gospel: Luke 4:21-30

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" He said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, 'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'" And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon. Again, there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.
