Readings for FEBRUARY 17: Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Jeremiah 17:5-8

Thus says the LORD: Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings, who seeks his strength in flesh, whose heart turns away from the LORD. He is like a barren bush in the desert that enjoys no change of season, but stands in a lava waste, a salt and empty earth. Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is the LORD. He is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream: it fears not the heat when it comes; its leaves stay green; in the year of drought it shows no distress, but still bears fruit.

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20

Brothers and sisters: If Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some among you say there is no resurrection of the dead? If the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised, and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. Then those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are the most pitiable people of all. But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Gospel: Luke 6:171, 20-26

Jesus came down with the twelve and stood on a stretch of level ground with a great crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon. And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours. Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are filled now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will grieve and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way."

PLEASE NOTE: The Parish Office & Youth Ministry Office will be closed on Tuesday, February 12, to allow staff to attend a Safe Environment training.

Giving Thanks

If you really stop and think about it most of us are guilty of this. When something out of the ordinary is thrown at us the first thing we do is pray hard and nonstop for that burden to be lifted from us. That is exactly what we should do. But when our prayers are answered do we spend the same amount of time or more thanking The Lord for those answered prayers?

Please join us Wednesday evening February 13th at 6:45pm at the Assumption Catholic Church in Ganado Tx. for an evening of Scripture, Prayers and Music thanking the Good Lord for all the Blessings he has bestowed upon us. Please spread the Word and hope to see you there!
