CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

Catholic Services Appeal - the Bishop's annual appeal - will be conducted on Nov. 5th & 6th. The annual diocesan Catholic Services Appeal will be conducted next two weekends. Each year, our bishop asks every one of us to make a commitment to support the work of our diocesan programs and ministries. By sharing the gifts God has granted us, we can work together to care for the Church. Please experience the joy of giving and join us as we work to continue Christ's work of spirituality, charity and education. Our parish goal is $19,000.

October is the month of the Rosary. Recite the Rosary each day, alone or with the family.

PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

SPECIAL COLLECTION TODAY IS FOR THE WORLD MISSION.

World Mission Sunday provides an opportunity for us to tell our missionary story. We can highlight the missionary dioceses served through our parishes, campus ministries, dioceses, and religious institutes.

It also provides a golden opportunity to cultivate the missionary spirit among the faithful and provide some mission education.

It is a way of thanking the local church for their generosity through the Mission Cooperative Program that happens, generally, over the summer.

It is a tangible expression of solidarity to our brothers and sisters who are taking the Gospel to the "ends of the earth" and honors the mandate given to the Pontifical Mission Societies.

Our involvement in World Mission Sunday gives a human face to mission and demonstrates how the US Catholic Community is providing both financial and human resources for world mission.

FOOD COLLECTION

We will be collecting Non-Perishable food items for The Shepherd's Heart a Waco food Pantry. This food pantry feeds 470 homebound elderly people and provides food for hungry families in Waco. ## FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP

At its Fall General Assembly in November 2015, the U.S. Bishops offered once again Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, its teaching document on political responsibility. The bishops urge use of the document to help in the formation of consciences, and to contribute to civil and respectful public dialogue and to shape political choices in light of Catholic teaching.

Considering the conscience, we must be careful not to attempt to separate “the right to follow our consciences” from “the duty to inform our consciences.” The conscience is not merely a hunch to excuse doing whatever we want to do; rather, the conscience “bears witness to the authority of truth in reference to the supreme Good to which the human person is drawn” (Catechism, 1777) because a well-formed conscience is moral judgment enlightened, upright and truthful (Catechism, 1783). The U.S. Bishops remind us that “participation in political life is a moral obligation...rooted in our baptismal commitment to follow Jesus Christ and to bear Christian witness in all we do” (Faithful Citizenship, 13; Catechism, 1913-1915).
