GOD'S WORK

We are so busy! Most of us have more than one job to do, and we never seem to have enough time. We are workers, volunteers, parents, friends, and most of us are more than one thing at a time. But which of these is the work of God?

We seldom view our ordinary work as being the work of God. We may think that we have to be ministers or priests, missionaries or charity workers, engaged full-time in works formally identified as being "God's work." But everything we do with a faithful heart and with love for others is God's work. We each have our own role to fill in the world, and many gifts are necessary. We cannot always see the direct connection of our daily work to the plan of God. But we trust and we believe that God leads us to do what is needed, where it is needed. What is "God's work?" "This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent" (John 6:29).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In 1794, a young Irishwoman befriended two widows aboard ship while emigrating to America. They bought a house in Philadelphia and began to live a community life under the direction of a priest. Soon they relocated to Washington. There, the "pious ladies," as the neighbors called them, were asked by their priest friend, by then the president of Georgetown University, to begin a religious community. In 1799 they established a branch of the Visitation Order founded by Saint Jane de Chantal and Saint Francis de Sales in the 1620s.

The unique vision of this order followed a sensible routine, less arduous and more flexible than most traditions, and also accepted widows and older women. Amazingly, this American outpost of the Visitation began without reference to the "rule" of the Order. Most of the European convents had been lost under the "reign of terror," and the rules and customs of the community could not be obtained. A copy of the rule was discovered in 1812, and in 1816 the pope officially established the monastery. By then, some French nuns had regrouped, and they sent a habit and cross to be copied. (No religious wore the habit in public in the United States until after the Civil War.) From the beginning, the Georgetown nuns had an educational mission, even though they discovered in the "rule" that such work was officially off-limits for the contemplative life. In America, the nuns depended on a school for their livelihood, so the rule was adapted. Today, the Academy of the Visitation is a thriving example of excellence in Catholic education, and the adjacent monastery is the oldest monastic foundation in the original thirteen United States.

NO HARSHNESS

Fight all error, but do it with good humor, patience, kindness, and love. Harshness will damage your own soul and spoil the best cause.

Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life.
— John 6:27a

EL TRABAJO QUE DIOS QUIERE

¡Estamos tan ocupados! Muchos de nosotros tenemos más de un trabajo y parecería que nunca tenemos suficiente tiempo. Somos trabajadores, voluntarios, padres, amigos y la mayoría es más de una cosa a la vez. Pero, ¿cuál de estos es el trabajo que Dios quiere?

Rara vez vemos nuestro trabajo común como el trabajo que Dios quiere. Quizás pensamos que debemos ser ministros o sacerdotes, misioneros o benefactores, que debemos realizar trabajos de tiempo completo que se consideran como “las obras de Dios”. Pero todo lo que hacemos con un corazón fiel y con amor por el prójimo es una obra de Dios. Cada uno tiene un papel que cumplir en el mundo y muchos dones son necesarios. No siempre podemos ver la relación directa que existe entre nuestro trabajo diario y los designios de Dios. Pero confiamos y tenemos fe en que Dios nos guía a hacer lo que es necesario, cuando es necesario. ¿Cuál es “la obra de Dios?” “La obra de Dios consiste en que crean en aquél a quien él ha enviado” (Juan 6:29).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Y el día 6 de agosto de 1726, Fray Antonio Margil de Jesús, el fundador de las misiones en Texas dijo “Ya es hora de ir a ver a Dios” y tomó su último paso. Desde su llegada a América en 1683 el indomable Hermano Menor trazó caminos para llevar el Evangelio de Jesucristo a los nativos.

Él emprendía sus caminos al estilo de los primeros misioneros seráficos de dos en dos, a pie, descalzo, alimentado sólo por virtud de la generosidad de los fieles, pasando las noches donde pudiera, armado sólo de un crucifijo, un bastón y su libro de oraciones y cantando mientras caminaba. De esta manera propagó la fe caminando hacia el norte llegando a la Bahía del Espíritu Santo en el Misisipí; y hacia el sur, llegando al istmo de Panamá.

A pesar del éxito de sus esfuerzos misioneros, Margil fue un hombre humilde que nunca quiso enorgullecerse de sus victorias. Solía firmar sus cartas “la misma nada” recordando así que Dios es todo y uno no es nada, porque la misión, en fin, es de Dios, uno es sólo un instrumento.

SIN DUREZA

Lucha contra todo error, pero hazlo con buen humor, paciencia, bondad y amor. La dureza dañará tu propia alma, y estropeará la causa por buena que sea.

BREAKFAST TODAY

Breakfast is being prepared and served by the Apostolado group. Come enjoy a delicious homemade breakfast made with lots of love and you in mind. Proceeds will help with all the ongoing projects around the church such as the renovation of the old church and the addition of the new awning for the Charro grounds. As always thank you for your continual support and great generosity.

We greatly appreciate you!

CCE AND RCIA CLASSES

Registration is taking place after every mass for CCE & RCIA classes. Volunteers will be set up at a table in the entrance of the church to assist you. CCE starts at the age of 6 years old until Confirmation. Every year they have to come back to continue learning about our Catholic Faith. Space are limited in the classroom, so act now and secure a classroom chair for your children. RCIA is a program for adults who want to be a catholic or for Catholics trying to complete the sacraments of initiation.

EIM TRAINING

All clergy and paid staff, and all volunteers working with youth and vulnerable adults, at any parish or diocesan location, are required to complete a one-time Application for Ministry prior to beginning their work/service and attend an EIM workshop within 60 days of submitting the application. Please login to your EIM account (use the Alternate Login option if needed) to pre-register to attend an EIM workshop; if you have not completed the EIM application, visit the EIM page at www.austindiocese.org to do so. Those contemplating volunteering still have time to attend a workshop in Waco.

CATECHISTS AND AIDS NEEDED

Do you have a serving heart and love talking about your faith? You have what it takes to teach our youth! Well along with a few other things.... :)

Boldly go where many have gone before and help pass on the Good News of Jesus Christ and our Catholic faith! This fall, over 650 children and young people, preschool through grade 12, will sign up to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. At this time, over 300 of these children and young people have no catechist to teach them. You can help by becoming a catechist for Faith Formation.

As you nurture the faith of our young, you will learn and grow as well! As one long-time catechist put it, "I learn so much from the children!" We provide you with training, materials, and support. Classes begin August 19th. If interested or for more information, contact Becky Salazar (254)349-1780 or the office.

Marriage Annulments: Father is here to help you in your marriage annulment. It is highly confidential and feel confident to visit with father with your marriage situation. Do not delay. This year is the opportune time to handle your case. Call Father at your earliest convenience.

Sacred Heart is a parish family called to be a visible sign of Christ, formed by the Word of God, strengthened by the Eucharist and empowered to serve the needs of God's people.

CONSIDER CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

Why not send your children to St. Louis and Reicher catholic schools?

ST. LOUIS
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Our Catholic schools partnership is to support parents in sending their children to Catholic School. This initiative is not a charity but a supplemental tuition program to families who wouldn't otherwise be able to benefit from the caring environment of a Catholic School. This partnership not only provides an increase in community involvement but witness of hope for the future through faith and love. Bring a letter of acceptance to Father for an opportunity to send your children to these schools.

TIME, TALENTS OR TREASURES

- ⇒ Support St. Francis in Franklin, TX in their annual festival by buying tickets. Some of their parishioners are here to sell. Thank you.
- ⇒ We congratulate the Columbiettes on their first degree event.

Congratulations

- ⇒ WE WANT YOU! Recruiting NEW members. Join the Apostolado.

TIME, TALENTS OR TREASURES

We are in need of your TREASURES. We are all members of one body in this church. Every member is a valuable part of the body and vital to the success of our church. We are very blessed and thankful to all our members that give of their TIME and TALENTS continually.

At this time we are requesting the services of all those that are able to give of their TREASURES. Donations are being accepted to support the remodeling of the old church area and awning addition project. Donations can be given directly to Father or will be gladly collected at the church office. Thank you for your support!.

PERMANET DIACONATE

The next diaconal formation class will begin in January 2020. Inquiry sessions are scheduled in spanish and English. There is a meeting schedule every month beginning in October until May. If interested, call the office for details.

Permanent deacon displays a natural inclination of service, exhibit a mature faith, express a love of the Church, and witness personal lives (married or single) that adhere to Church teaching.

CTFCM CHALLENGE

Catholic Texas Fellowship of Catholic Men we are challenging men in our Diocese to see if you can give some time and talents to the CTFCM. There are many opportunities within our organization to make an impact now with growing the ministry to reach more men in the diocese. If you feel called to help more men find Catholic fellowship we can use your help on several committees. Whether you have experience in Marketing, Finance, event management or simply pounding the pavement we are looking to grow and need some help laying the infrastructure to make the CTFCM's ability to reach all men in the Diocese of Austin a reality. Please contact us if you are called to help us with our mission."
