THIRTEENTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR B

Wisdom 1:13-15;2:23-24 God did not create death, rather it is a consequence of human sinfulness. On the contrary, God has created us for immortality.

II Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15 Christ though rich in being as God became poor by assuming a human nature. Thus we should likewise divest ourselves of material things.

Mark 5:21-43 The cure of the woman with a blood disease is sandwiched amid a narrative about the raising up of the daughter of the synagogue leader. The Lord calls both the father and the woman to faith.

Discussion Question: Do I really believe that God calls us to live eternally or do I live as if this is all that there is?

Commento: Cristo, attraversando la nostra umanità fino al livello ultimo del dolore e della morte, ha conquistato queste realtà tragicamente umane alla sua gloria divina, aprendole alla speranza e alla vita. -Ravasi

Comentario: Nosotros creemos en la resurrección futura, afirmamos que nuestra muerte no es el estado definitivo en el que quedaremos, afirmamos que Cristo tiene el poder de resucitarnos.. A. von Rechnitz González

OLMC SCHOOL

As May turns into June, Mount Carmel keeps getting busier and busier!. Our last month of the year is shaping up to be an exciting one!

Visit the classrooms and see all of the great things that our school has to offer. 914-592-7575.

The School year 2018-2019 will be OLMC ninetieth year, stay tuned for all the celebrations!

OLMC GARDEN

There is a garden planted on the North side of the Parish House that is intended to assist the patrons of our Food Pantry. The eighth grade graduation class has been caring for it as well as some parish volunteers. While the produce will feed those who are in need. The real produce is the love with which it was planted and intended. Thank God there are parishioners, young and older who are the willing instruments of God's love. – Fr.

Bob

NEWLY CONFIRMED IN THEIR OWN WORDS

to Fr. Bob about why they wish to be confirmed.

“I take Anne as my name not only in love of my now deceased grandmother, but to St. Anne for helping my great grandmother. I feel safe knowing my family had a Saint looking out for them.” EP

“As I get older I understand that it is my responsibility to become more mature and continue in the ways of God since it will be expected of me from both my social and Christian life.” JV

“I will be taking a step to my faith and have only the beginning of my religion to start and later on in life to mature in believe and understand about my savior Jesus Christ.” DC

“I am ready because I am prepared to take my faith seriously and live my faith with service to others.” JL

TO OLMC SCHOOL GRADUATES

Thank you for the great honor that you do me in dedicating your year book. I am humbled by your gracious words and the kind sentiment they express. You have been blessed to be together during your time at OLMC. You have also been a blessing for the School, Sr. Stephen, your teachers and the students in the lower grades that you mentored. It was a privilege to direct such a talented and generous group of young men and women. I merely interpreted the dramatic sense but you made it come to life and many people were moved by both productions. I pray for your success in high school and in the future. Fr. Bob

Pope Francis – A Man Of His Word

Fr. Augustine and I saw the Film at the local movie theater and I recommend it as an opportunity to spend time with a congenial Pastor. – Fr. Bob
In his review Steve Pound comments that the movie did convince me that the pope is a good man. Then again, Pope Francis is a healer, not a proselytizer. And Wenders knows enough to stand back and let him say his piece and make his peace.
