INSIDE "HEAVENLY BODIES: FASHION AND THE CATHOLIC IMAGINATION"

Get a behind-the-scenes look at the creation of Heavenly Bodies: Fashion and the Catholic Imagination, the largest exhibition The Costume Institute at The Metropolitan Museum of Art has ever done, opening May 10, 2018 in both The Met Fifth Avenue and The Met Cloisters. The Costume Institute's spring 2018 exhibition will feature a dialogue between fashion and religious artworks from The Met collection to examine the relationship between creativity and the religious imagination. "I had the opportunity to visit the exhibit last week and I was very impressed by the interplay of Church design and the designs of contemporize fashion designers. It is playful, imaginative and a wonderful meditation on Art and the Spiritual life. The exhibit extends to mid October and it is well worth the visit for the whole family." Fr. Bob

STUDY OF THE GOSPEL OF MARK

We meet twice a month; The study will be based on the book "Say to This Mountain" Mark's Story of Discipleship by Chad Myers and team. Those who wish to attend, please get a copy of the book and a Bible with you. Our next meeting will be Tuesday August 14th, at 7:00 in the Parish Meeting Room we will be reading chapter 18 of Say To This Mountain.

OLMC HOLY NAME SOCIETY

Eighteenth Sunday of the Year B

Exodus 16: 2-4, 12-15 The Israelites complain to Moses that they are hungry, so God sends them Manna and quails.

Ephesians 4:17, 20-24 As Christians we are called to live differently from others. Our lives should reflect the fact that we are God's very children.

John 6: 24-35 The multiplication of the loaves and fish affirms identity of Jesus. Seek the bread that will save your souls, Jesus, the "bread of life."

Discussion Question: How do we nourish the spiritual lives of those entrusted to our care?

Commento: "Il cuore, quindi, del brano, è cristologico; l'uomo imprigionato nella sua debolezza non deve più cercare una salvezza limitata e relative, ma accorrere al Cristo per non avere più fame e sete." G. Ravasi

Comentario: «No es el hombre quien hace que las cosas ofrecidas se conviertan en Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo, sino Cristo mismo que fue crucificado por nosotros (San Juan Crisóstomo, Prod. Jud. 1, 6).

OLMC SCHOOL

The School year 2018-2019 will be OLMC ninetieth year, stay tuned for all the celebrations!

NEWLY CONFIRMED IN THEIR OWN WORDS

The Following are excerpts from Letters from the Newly Confirmed teenagers:

"Padre Pio is the saint of Reconciliation. I chose this saint name because he has always been a part of my life since I was little. His life inspires my everyday life to take Jesus' pain and suffering and become one with him just like he did." C.M.

"My Confirmation will mark publicly how important my faith is to me as a member of my community and my willingness to continue applying all the knowledge received all this year." J.E.

"When I was young my parents chose to give me the opportunity of becoming a catholic by baptizing me. Now I have chosen to receive this sacrament to continue my faith with God." O.E.
"I wished to be called Genevieve. .... it was said that when she was around seven years of age a bishop came to her town and choose her to help lead in her catholic faith. This is important to me because I feel God is calling me to do something good and that I was put here for a reason. " LRH

ANNUAL MISSION APPEAL August 4-5

Each year, every parish is assigned a group to support for the Mission Appeals this year we have been asked to support The Congregation of the Missionary Sisters of St. Charles Borromeo Scalabrinians founded in Italy, on October 25, 1895. The MSCS Sisters concretize their mission through catechesis, Christian education, pastoral care of health, social action and pastoral care of migration. They work in schools, hospitals, orphanages, prisons, shelters for needy children, nursing homes, formation houses, ethnic-cultural communities, parishes, dioceses, Episcopal conferences, international organizations, civil organizations, promotion centers, centers for listening and welcoming migrants, study and documentation centers. In response to the challenges of human mobility and faithful to the charism that the Church has entrusted to her, the Congregation becomes present through the witness of consecrated life and in the evangelical and missionary service to migrants, especially to the poorest and neediest. The spirit that animates it, is that of universal communion because it wants to make visible the vocation of the members to recognize, love and serve Christ in the person of migrants.
