James 2:1-5 There should be no difference between rich and poor, among Christians.

Mark 7:31-37 Jesus heals a man who is deaf and dumb with mud and spittle. The Lord opens our senses so that we might perceive him in one another.

Discussion Question: How have we guided friends and family to behold the beauty of the Lord in the world?

Commento: "...l'attenzione ai poveri, spesso dimenticata dai nobili delle varie comunità, e il nesso intimo tra culto e vita, tra fede ed impegno esistenziale." - G. Ravasi

Comentario: Todos los milagros son señales y, por eso, no tienen sentido en sí mismos sino en aquello a lo que señalen: la presencia del Reino del Dios..." - A. von Rechnitz Gonzalez

NEWLY CONFIRMED IN THEIR OWN WORDS

The Following are excerpts from Letters from the Newly Confirmed teenagers:

"As I grow older, I know that it will take lots to be confirmed, but it will be expected of me. As I begin this task, I would like to be strengthened by the Gift of the Holy Spirit. Receiving this Sacrament is not my parents choice, but my choice." S. S-C.

"I also have chosen to receive this Sacrament as a way of having a better and closer relationship with God. In addition to my preparation of Confirmation, I have accepted full responsibility over living a mature Christian life as I have accomplished work through my Church and my community." C.E.

"As a young lady, I feel it's a mature step getting confirmed, it not only means feeling good and closer to God but having faith and being able to experience this with my family, sponsor and God." R.P.

"As a young man, I have realized all the difficulties that there are in the world but I know that God is always with me." A.D.
