PRAYER FOR ADVENT

God of Life,
We rejoice in the promise of your coming.
You have sent your Son, born in Bethlehem.
He is the Prince of Peace, and
The one in whose name all oppression shall cease.

May we welcome His coming each day
And prepare for His coming at the end of time.
We build a culture that welcomes Him
By welcoming every child, born and unborn.

We pray through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

First Reading: Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b, 64:2-7

In this straightforward psalm, the people acknowledge their sinful ways, yet plead that their Creator might reveal himself to them. They ask God to remember, not their sins, but that "We are all the work of your hands."

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:3-9

Paul explains to the Corinthians that they are specially favored by God who has sent his only Son to them. He reminds us all that it was through God's grace that we have been called to kinship with Christ.

Gospel: Mark 13:33-37

Just as a servant watching over the master's house does not know when he will return, we do not know the hour of the Second Coming. Mark reminds us of the warning from Jesus to always be on guard, for we know not the day nor the hour.

“COME HOME FOR CHRISTMAS”

We probably all know relatives or friends who, for whatever reason, have not been to Sunday Mass in a while. Advent is a perfect time to invite fellow Catholics to return to the practice of their faith.

This year again, every Catholic Church will be open for Reconciliation on Monday December 18th from 4:00pm – 8:00pm. It might be a good idea to encourage all Catholics to make a good confession during this Advent season and to join us at Mass for Christmas.

This Advent, prepare your heart for the Peace of Christ.

PERPETUAL ADORATION

Advent is here and we prepare for the birth of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. It is also the gift giving time. A perfect gift for anyone, young or old, man or woman, rich or poor is the gift of a Holy Hour offered for him. Come into the chapel and spend an hour with Jesus. Tell Him you love Him and ask for His grace and guidance. Tell Him who you are praying for and why. Trust that He hears your prayer. At the end of the hour, pick up a card from the back of the chapel. Write in the recipient's name and who it is from. Give him your gift on Christmas and see his joy and how your own heart has been changed.

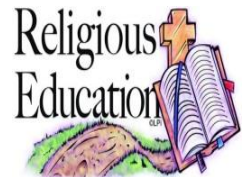

Consider becoming a Guardian of the Eucharist. Since the chapel is open 24/7 there is a need for many guardians to commit to covering one of the 168 hours of the week. Any hour that you are able to do is a good one. We can never have too many guardians on an hour. Call Marty/Clarice Suchy 692-4510.

There are some hours of special need. Please consider:

Mon. Midnight-1 AM
Mon. 1-2AM
Tues. 3-4 AM

Fri. 4-5 PM
Sat. 11-Noon
Sat. 3-4 PM
