This committee fulfills the justice dimensions of scripture and our church tradition, acknowledging that every Christian is called to service and to work for justice. The committee's scope of responsibility is two-fold: 1) to meet immediate needs: 2) to work for changes in the structures of society which are oppressive. Committee members are not responsible to actually DO all of the committee's work, but rather, to INVOLVE OTHERS in actively accepting the responsibility of their baptism. The committee supports those in the parish who are already involved in service, advocacy, justice education, and empowerment of people. This committee works with community groups and other parishes to help solve related problems. They keep parishioners aware of issues relating to justice, peace, hunger and the homeless on local, national and international levels so that appropriate Christian action on such issues can be determined.

RESPECT LIFE: This committee sensitizes the parish to the many facets of the Church's teachings on Respect for Life with particular emphasis on the continuum for life and designs and implements programs to foster this ministry throughout the parish under the guidance of the Diocesan Office for Respect Life.

- FINANCE: The Pastoral Council makes recommendations to the Finance Council concerning all aspects of parish financial and budget matters, personnel, stewardship of resources, church support and fund-raising coordination. The activities and recommendations of this council are firmly rooted in the biblical concept of stewardship. The council works closely with the Pastoral Council and is supportive of all other committees. 5. Publish a parish newsletter (quarterly). All organizations of the parish will be asked to submit information.

- STEWARDSHIP: As stewards, we consider ourselves caretakers of all God's gifts. We cultivate our time, talent, and treasure, using these gifts to love and serve God and our neighbor. Stewardship is faith in action. Acknowledging that all is from God, good stewards experience life-changing conversion of the heart. The stewardship committee monitors parish giving programs and assumes responsibility for bringing such matters continually to the attention of the parishioners. It serves as the "conscience" of both the Pastoral Council and the parish in calling fellow parishioners to live their lives as true disciples of Christ, sharing with others as a gift all that they have themselves received as gift: life, talents, time, and treasure.

Section 3: All standing committees operate under a set of common Standing Committee Guidelines established by the Council and reviewed by the Council periodically. Each committee chairperson shall meet with the Council at least once a year or as directed by the Council. A committee is able to make decisions only if a quorum is present, which means a majority of its members. There may be majority and minority reports presented to the Council if agreement cannot be achieved. All decisions by committees that relate to the parish must be approved by the Council.

Section 4: Committee members will be expected to serve two years. Committee terms may be renewed.

Section 5: The chairperson of each committee shall be appointed by the Council and shall serve, at the Council's satisfaction, as long as they are willing to assume the responsibilities of the position.
