Prayer, Fasting & Almsgiving

Our first reading from Genesis takes us to the story of the very first sin. It is also the story of every sin, about every person's loss of innocence.

Haven't we all experienced the same things as Adam and Eve? There is a time of clear conscience. Then, comes a temptation that promises that we would become godlike, somehow more mature. It promises one thing, but delivers something else and we experience the fall. In that moment, we lose something and realize that we are naked. We come to see how fragile, suggestible, limited, and weak we are as our sin distances us from the God we once knew so well. As the Catechism says, the essence of that original sin was the attempt by Adam and Eve to be like God, but without God. The heart of every sin is the desire to be like God, but without God.

The Gospel reading is also about temptation. Jesus went into the wilderness of Judea and was tempted three times, but the result was victory. His were temptations we all know well. Homilies interpret them differently, but maybe we can see them as some of the temptations of Lent.

The first temptation is to turn the stones to bread. Why fast during Lent? We all know this temptation in a society driven by consumption. Jesus quotes Scripture to give a great truth, "We do not live by bread alone." There is a place inside us that one writer has called the "hole in the soul," a place only God can fill. To keep a serious Lent, with its fast and abstinence, is a declaration of independence from the grip of consumption. Giving up something for Lent is not about self-punishment, but about a freedom that liberates the soul and makes space for God.

The second temptation is to jump from the Temple, to compel God do something for us. If you're going to pray, forget about the difficult work of repentance and conversion of life - go for a quick fix, cheap grace, instant results. Jesus quotes Scripture to say, "You shall not tempt the Lord, your God." There is no express lane to redemption without repentance. There is no way to bypass the need to change how we live in order to experience grace.

The third temptation is the illusion that fulfillment comes from power and control. Jesus shows us a different way, "to do homage to the Lord alone." Fulfillment comes from following the Lord in giving something of ourselves to others. We are serving God when we are helping others.

We all know the failures of Adam and Eve in our life. Lent assures us that we can know the victory of Jesus Christ in our life if we are generous in fasting, prayer and almsgiving. St. Paul says, because of Jesus Christ, grace and spiritual victory can be ours as well. The result of a serious Lent is a deeper union with the victorious and Risen Christ.

WORSHIP / ADORACIÓN

Rite of Sending

This weekend at the 5:00pm Mass, we celebrate the Rite of Sending with our catechumens and candidates who are preparing for Sacraments of Initiation. We will hear testimony about their readiness to receive the Sacraments. The catechumens will inscribe their names in the Book of the Elect. We then "send" them to the Bishop for the Rite of Election and the Call to Continuing Conversion, held at the Basilica on Sunday afternoon. The Book of the Elect will be presented to the Bishop. The Church makes its "election" of the catechumens, now called "the Elect" or "the Illuminandi" (those who will be enlightened), and the candidates are called to continue and deepen their conversion. They begin a Period of Purification and Enlightenment — the final, intense preparation for the reception of the Sacraments of Initiation. Please keep them in prayer as they continue their journey towards the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil.

Stations of the Cross
