Kim Martin Biography

Kim Martin was born and raised in Gladstone, ND. Kim played basketball for the Gladstone Hornets and then for the Dickinson Midgets. He attended Minot State College and played basketball and baseball for the college. After receiving a degree in accounting, Kim married his high school sweetheart, Cindy, and returned to the Gladstone area to farm and ranch. He had two children that attended Trinity; Nikki (class of '95) and B.J. (class of '99). As an active member in his community Kim joined many volunteer groups. Kim started the "Holy Cow" Club which was a key fundraiser for Trinity. Throughout his life, he was very involved in hunting, fishing, and sports. He especially loved getting children involved in these activities. Kim currently has 5 grandchildren, 3 of which attend Trinity Catholic Schools.

"FOR KIM"

We had a family friend who died at 47
I know he's with God in heaven

I remember the times we had
Always good and never bad
Liked to play cards with my mom and dad

Liked to play softball with his friends
Awe the good time never ends

He left here in such a hurry
Seems like it is still very blurry

He loved fishing and driving his boat
Never forget that Kansas City Chiefs coat

His son now takes care of the farm
He never meant to do any harm

Liked to hang out with his peers
Sometimes he even had a few beers

All I know is that we'll miss him
Thanks for everything and God bless you, Kim
