World Mission Sunday

Thank you for your generous response to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith last weekend on World Mission Sunday. While some go to serve in other countries to develop the Church and serve its people, all of us are called to pray and support the Missions from right where we live. To continue answering this call, download the Missio App which makes it possible for you to meet and support religious Sisters and Brothers, priests and dedicated lay leaders who provide help and hope in some of the world's poorest places. These missionaries provide essential education and health care, social outreach and advocacy, and pastoral service. They address basic human needs, while in every moment offering spiritual comfort and support to the suffering and the marginalized. Join them in mission every day as you joined them this past World Mission Sunday!

Domingo Mundial de las Misiones

Muchas gracias por su generosa respuesta a la Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe, durante el fin de semana pasado en el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones. Mientras algunos van a servir en otros países para desarrollar la iglesia y servir a su gente, todos nosotros estamos llamados a orar y apoyar a las misiones desde aquí donde vivimos. Para continuar respondiendo a este llamado, descarguen la aplicación Missio, la cual hace posible que conozcan y apoyen a hermanas y hermanos religiosos, sacerdotes y líderes laicos dedicados a proveer ayuda y esperanza a algunos de los lugares más pobres del mundo. Estos misioneros ofrecen educación y atención de salud esencial, apoyo social, y servicio pastoral. Ellos atienden necesidades humanas básicas, mientras ofrecen consuelo y apoyo espiritual en todo momento a quienes sufren y están marginados. ¡Únase a ellos en la misión cada día como se unieron a ellos el pasado Domingo Mundial de las Misiones!

Young Adult Ministry

All young adults, ages 18 (high school grad) through 35 are invited to participate in Journey. Journey meets on some Monday evenings to discuss the upcoming Sunday gospel reading. Other weeks the group goes to Ft. Worth to participate in Theology on Tap (TOT) and Young Catholic Professionals (YCP). TOT and YCP bring together young adults from around the diocese to explore our Catholic faith and learn how to live our Catholicism every day. # 31st SUNDAY IN Ordinary Times OCTOBER 30, 2016

GOSPEL REFLECTION:

Wisdom 11:22–12:2
2 Thessalonians 1:11–2:2
Psalm 145:1-2, 8-11, 13-14
Luke 19:1-10

"Today salvation has come to this house." —

Luke 19:9

"After salvation had come to his house, Zacchaeus immediately stated his intent to make reparation for the damage done by him through his sins. This is traditionally called "doing penance." Zacchaeus "said to the Lord: 'I give half my belongings, Lord, to the poor. If I have defrauded anyone in the least, I pay him back fourfold' " (Lk 19:8). Likewise, if we have truly repented from our sins, we will want to do penance and repair in some way the damage done by our sins.

Because sin is such a great evil, its damage is very extensive. Zacchaeus realized this. So he began to make partial reparation by giving half of his possessions to the poor. Because Zacchaeus was a chief tax collector and tax collecting was a lucrative business, half of Zacchaeus' assets could probably be at least the equivalent of several hundred thousand dollars. This shows the extent of the need to make reparation and do penance.

The indulgences given by the Church also imply that the victims of sin are severely damaged. An indulgence is the Church's application of Christ's merits and the Church's share in those merits to the repair due to sin. Unless the repair job was extensive, why would we need help of such magnitude?

Purgatory is partly for reparation of the damaging effects of sin. This again implies that justice and love require reparation for our sins and that this repairing is extensive.

Zacchaeus is a patron of reparation and penance. Let us follow his example and return to being a people of penance." (PRESENTATION MINISTRIES)
