Alternative Spring Break Highlight: Puerto Rico

During Spring Break, ten students and staff from the Catholic Center served in Juncos, Puerto Rico with Rebuilding Hope. They worked at Casa Por Todos, an orphanage for children who are victims of domestic violence and abuse. While there, students helped repair the buildings, chapel, and landscaping impacted by Hurricane Maria. Additionally, students spent time visiting churches, hearing from people affected by the hurricane, and on the final day of the trip admiring the beautiful beach. Overall, the students had a wonderful experience of serving Christ and the poor and experiencing and learning about the different culture and its unique attributes.
