Palm Sunday of the Passion of Our Lord

Our Lenten journey climaxes in this celebration of Holy Week. Throughout these days we are called to experience with Christ a journey of unselfish love; to die to all that is sinful in us and to rise to new and renewed life. Will justice and charity be renewed in us through this journey? Will we make room for those in need as we let selfishness die in us?

Holy Thursday

Following the example of Pope Francis, we are expanding our ritual of Foot washing to invite all who wish to participate, to be involved. There will be two chairs set up and people can come up and have their feet washed by the person in front of them. Then the person whose feet were washed switches places and we continue until all who are so moved have taken part.

A Word from Servant of God Isaac Hecker, Founder of the Paulist Fathers

“It is a fresh infusion of this spirit which must inform these new institutions and breathe in all the actions of their members. It was this new inspiration that in former days gave the reason for the founding of new Religious Orders. The same reason hold good in our day. There is none other.” [On the Mission of New Religious Communities, 1876]

If you have asked Father Hecker to pray for you or another person who is ill, and you believe something miraculous has happened, please phone Father Paul Robichaud, CSP, at 202-269-
