PASTORAL COUNCIL ELECTIONS

As mentioned in the previous bulletin, we will hold elections for the Pastoral Council next weekend. The names of the candidates, and scant details germane to the election, are below. Here's how the elections will proceed next weekend:

Election Rules

1. Parishioners at least 18 years of age may vote.
2. Each person may vote only one time – that is, cast only one ballot.
3. One man and one woman will be elected (top vote getter is elected).
4. Voting takes place after each Mass at the Parish Hall.
5. Even though this is Louisiana, no one can cast a ballot for anyone else. (Lol!) To use an example, a spouse may not cast a ballot for another spouse.
6. No campaigning.

Susana Beaubouef

Susana is married to Joseph Beaubouef. She is the mother of Drew Beaubouef; she adopted her Godchild, Cayden Beaubouef. Susana is a lifelong Catholic and dedicates much of her time to St. Joan of Arc. She volunteers in the parish by teaching catechism and assisting with the CCD program. She is a member of the choir. She is involved in Cursillo and attends Ultreya.

Briana Denise Horton

Briana is the daughter of Mark and Cynthia Horton. She is a lifelong parishioner of St. Joan of Arc. (While in college at McNeese, she was a member of Our Lady of Good Counsel – the Catholic Student Center.) She has been a teacher in the CCD program. She was a member of the Youth Group until graduating high school. She played the piano at the 7:30 am Mass until leaving for college.

Debra Reeves

Debra is married to Alan Reeves. They have three children – Carlee, Ethan, and Elliott. Debra is a lifelong Catholic and has been a member of St. Joan of Arc for 13 years. She sings in the choir, is part of one of the Come, Lord Jesus groups, and assists with the CCD program as an administrative assistant and substitute teacher.

Kenneth J. Berry

Kenny is 30 years of age. He is the Son of Wilbert Berry, Jr. and Eve Black. He is the grandson of Wilbert, Sr. and Loris Berry. He is a lifelong parishioner of St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church. He has served as an Usher for over 8 years. He is a Pipeline Inspector and has visited many Catholic churches and Cathedrals nationwide in dedication to the importance of Holy Mass.

Ryan J. Rozas

Ryan is 45 years of age. He is a lifelong Catholic and member of St. Joan of Arc. He and his wife Hope have four sons, ranging from ages 6 to 18. Ryan is a 3rd degree Knight in the Knights of Columbus and a dedicated member of the Holy League Men's Group. He is also the official photographer for Saint Joan of Arc.

Daryl David Granger

Daryl is 61 years of age. He is a lifelong Catholic and lifelong member of St. Joan of Arc. He is married to Monica "Renee" Granger. They have four children and four grandchildren. Daryl is a member of the Knights of Columbus and assists with the CCD program as a teacher.

BULLETIN SERIES COMING SOON!

As mentioned last week, soon the bulletin will feature a very solid and engaging – and very informative – treatment of the Catholic Faith. This series will be systematic, clear, and concise. Each bulletin will have a short article that treats some aspect of the Catholic Faith. If you wish to find out a little preliminary information on this catechetical series, go to: <https://www.growmyparish.com>. Let Mr. "Joe Sixpack" (the author of the series ... what an awesome name!!!) fill you in on this wonderful catechetical series. It will appear in the bulletin soon! Get ready!

THOUGHTS ON CARDINAL SARAH'S INTERVIEW

I'm wondering what your impression of Cardinal Sarah's interview was. Wasn't it impressive to see one of the most powerful (and humble) men in the Catholic Church call on all Priests to offer holy Mass ad Orientem?

As a Catholic (in general), the thought that we've done something that has eclipsed God from the heart of the Mass is rather frightening. As a Priest (in particular), that I could be guilty of such an abomination torments my soul. It gives me dread fear, for I desire that Christ reign always and everywhere, especially at holy Mass.

Please consider this question seriously. What if something that began with good intentions (i.e., turning the Priest toward the people) actually rubs up against the sin of idolatry? What if rather than facilitating your participation at holy Mass, having me face you actually impedes it, because it diminishes Christ from being recognizable? Some may scoff, but is this not what Cardinal Sarah has indicated has occurred by turning the Priest toward the people at Mass? Is it not fair to ask questions such as these, especially after hearing from the good Cardinal about the "necessity" of the Priest turning back around toward God at holy Mass so that God can be restored to His rightful place? It seems to me that only the coward or the ne'er-do-well would balk at raising such questions, but this is not the lot of a true Christian.

As such, we must be serious about our relationship with God, otherwise there's no point in having one. The holiness of the Mass (it's holier than any other prayer), moreover, must cause us to reflect deeply on whether we see ourselves as servants of God and His sacred mysteries or whether we prefer to exalt our own preferences to what the virtue of religion requires. Or, have we become so timid that we are unwilling to pursue what the justice of God's holiness requires?

May the Lord grant each of us humility and fortitude. The first will help us discover what God's will is; the second will provide us with the strength and resolve to bring it about, regardless of what it could cost us personally. God love you!
