FROM FATHER CONNER

1. First, I'd like to wish you continued Christmas wishes. Since we haven't even completed the Christmas Octave yet, we're still well within the Christmas season. May the joy of the Lord's Nativity remain with you and your family as we celebrate this beautiful season!
2. If you happened not to attend one of the Masses at SJoA last Sunday, I encourage you to listen to my homily from the Fourth Sunday of Advent. I completed my reflections on Bishop Provost's recent Decree. Specifically, I focused on the Most Holy Eucharist. During that sermon, I asked all parishioners to commit to the following:
  - a. Make at least one hour of Eucharistic adoration per week;
  - b. Participate in at least one Eucharistic procession per year;
  - c. Commit to one hour when SJoA hosts 40 Hours Devotions.As you no doubt remember, His Excellency has required all of these in every parish of the Diocese. But, as you will hear in my sermon: it's not really the parish that needs these things. It is us parishioners. Please give the sermon a listen. You can access my Youtube channel by going to Youtube and searching Ad Deum Productions. The channel can also be accessed from SJoA's website. A link to it is on the homepage.
3. The Octave Day of Christmas, that is, January 1st, is a day of precept (aka, holy day of obligation). SJoA will have two Masses on January 1st: 7:30 am & 10:00 am. We'll also have a New Year's Eve Holy Hour at 11:00 pm. Refreshments will be served at the Parish Hall after the holy hour.
