MASS INTENTIONS

Offering a Mass for a loved one is a powerful intercessory prayer and a priceless gift. A Mass can be offered for anyone, living or deceased, on any occasion, such as a birthday, an anniversary, in time of illness, or even for a special intention. To schedule a Mass intention, please visit the Parish Office.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

St. Cyril of Alexandria (27 June): At the Council of Ephesus (431), he defended Mary as Theotokos (“God-bearer”). Noted especially for his Christological formulations, Cyril supported the growth of monasticism in Egypt. He died in 444.

St. Irenaeus (28 June): An early third century bishop, Irenaeus was the first to provide a coherent rationale for a Christian Bible including both testaments and the first to offer a comprehensive account of believe in God’s universal providential and redemptive economy.

Sts. Peter and Paul (29 June): Peter and Paul are the principal patrons of Rome. Peter died in 64 under the emperor Nero. Considered the first pope, two epistles in the New Testament are ascribed to him. Paul, according to tradition, was martyred in Rome around the year 67. He was Pharisee who became the “Apostle of the Gentiles”.

The First Martyrs of the Holy Roman Church (30 June): Those many Christians who were tortured, crucified, and burned alive in 64 in Nero’s garden on the Vatican Hill are honored here.

St. Junípero Serra (1 July): A Franciscan missionary from Spain, Junípero Serra established nine of the California missions, baptized over 6,000 native peoples, and is recognized as a builder of the state of California. He was canonized by Pope Francis in Washington, D.C. in September 2015.

SODALITY FOR THE CHURCH IN AFRICA

Next week, our parish will take up a collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa (SFCA). While the Church in Africa is growing, many still lack access to basic resources and pastoral care. Many suffer due to high rates of poverty and unemployment, illiteracy, and poor education. The SFCA supports pastoral projects that foster lasting peace and reconciliation in a continent often marked by division and tension. To learn more, visit <www.usccb.org/africa>.

RETIREMENT OF FATHER MEEHAN

In his poem, To A Mouse, the famous Scottish author, Robbie Burns, wrote: “The best laid plans of mice and men often go awry.” So it is with the departure of Father Meehan and the arrival of our new priest at the chapel. Father Meehan received word that his retirement apartment won’t be available until 1 August. At the same time, our new priest—who is coming to us from a parish that is presently merging—received word that the process would not be complete by 1 July, which is the normal date for the start of new assignments. So, by some sort of serendipity, Father Meehan will remain with us for the month of July and leave on 1 August. That allows our new priest time to get packed and the pastor to take his vacation. Wasn’t it St. Teresa of Calcutta who said, “All things work together with God?”

SACRED MUSIC

Sacred music, being a complementary part of the solemn liturgy, participates in the general scope of the liturgy, which is the glory of God and the sanctification and edification of the faithful. It contributes to the decorum and the splendor of the ecclesiastical ceremonies, and since its principal office is to clothe with suitable melody the liturgical text proposed for the understanding of the faithful, its proper aim is to add greater efficacy to the text, in order that through it the faithful may be the more easily moved to devotion and better disposed for the reception of the fruits of grace belonging to the celebration of the most holy mysteries. — St. Pius X
