THE CHOIR

This Sunday marks the end of the Choir’s season. A special thank you to them for their ministry, helping us to pray. Music at Sunday Mass will continue throughout the summer, with music led by a cantor and organ. The Choir will return in mid-September.

IN GRATITUDE

Father Robbins is most grateful to all who extended prayers and sent him Mass Intentions and cards for his recent rotator cuff surgery. The successful procedure took place on Friday, 26 May. Father Robbins continues to recuperate and will begin physical therapy soon. We look forward to his return at Mass in the coming weeks.

CORPUS CHRISTI

We heard: how at the [Last] Supper Jesus gives his Body and his Blood through the bread and wine, to leave us the memorial of his sacrifice of infinite love. And with this “Viaticum” filled with grace, the disciples had everything necessary for their journey through history, to extend to all the Kingdom of God. The gift that Jesus made of himself, by his voluntary immolation on the Cross, will be light and strength for them. This Bread of Life has come down to us! The Church’s amazement at this reality is unending. An astonishment which always feeds contemplation, adoration, and memory. This is shown to us by a really beautiful text from today’s Liturgy, the Responsory to the Second Reading from the Office of Readings, which reads: “See in this bread the body of Christ which hung upon the cross, and in this cup the blood which flowed from his side. Take his body, then, and eat it; take his blood and drink it, and you will become his members. The body of Christ is the bond which unites you to him: eat it, or you will have no part in him. The blood is the price he paid for your redemption: drink it, lest you despair of your sinfulness.”

Jesus poured out his Blood so that we might be purified of all sin: not to lose hope, let us look to Him, drink at his font, to be shielded from the risk of corruption. Then we will feel the grace of transformation: we will always be poor sinners, but the Blood of Christ will free us from our sins and restore our dignity. It will free us from corruption. Not by our merit, with sincere humility, we will be able to bring our brothers the love of our Lord and Saviour. We will be his eyes which go in search of Zacchaeus and Mary Magdalene; we will be his hand which soothes those who are sick in body and spirit; we will be his heart which loves those in need of reconciliation, mercy and understanding.

Thus, the Eucharist fulfills the Covenant which sanctifies us, purifies us and unites us in worthy communion with God. Thus we learn that the Eucharist is not a prize for the good, but is strength for the weak, for sinners. It is forgiveness, it is the Viaticum that helps us to move forward, to walk.

— Pope Francis, 4 June 2015

should flesh and blood refine,*

God’s presence, and His very self and essence all-divine.”

BLACK AND INDIAN MISSION COLLECTION

Our baptisms into Christ Jesus and His Church have made all of us missionaries, beginning with our own families and parishes. Like the Apostles, we are encouraged to reach out to our brothers and sisters in faith, love, and sacrifice. Please help build up our mission to the missions by supporting the Black and Indian Mission Collection!

Your support will provide the presence of missionaries in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native missions, schools, and religious education programs. Your participation will place bibles and catechetical materials in the hands of priests, consecrated women and men, and lay leaders in our Black Catholic communities. Your sacrifice also addresses the need to train catechists, permanent deacons, and seminarians for future generations in many of our neighborhoods and back yards.

Thank you for your generous support of the Black and Indian Mission Collection. It truly makes a difference.
