PROTECTION OF MINORS

Cardinal Dolan invites the faithful to watch a video about the present crisis facing the Church at: <archny.org/news/transparency-accountability-and-action>

OCTOBER: MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

Every Sunday, after the 9:00 a.m. Mass at Our Saviour and the 12:45 p.m. Mass at Sacred Hearts, parishioners pray the Rosary. You are warmly invited to join the group and entrust to Our Lady any intentions that you may have.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY – 20 OCTOBER

At Baptism, each of us is marked by the Lord and entrusted with a special responsibility to tell the world of his message and invitation. We are, indeed, called to serve as his missionaries.

World Mission Sunday affords all baptized Catholics an opportunity to celebrate their missionary vocation through prayer and sacrifice for the missionary work of the Church.

This year's World Mission Sunday, 20 October, marks the 110th anniversary of our "mission independence". Through 1908, the Church in the United States was the beneficiary of the generosity of the Catholic faithful of Europe through the Society of the Propagation of the Faith. In fact, two-thirds of the very first collection of the Propagation of the Faith, in 1822, was sent to the Church in America, making it possible to build churches and schools, educate clergy and religious, provide for the good works of religious communities, and support evangelization here at home. By a 1908 papal decree, the designation "mission territory" was removed from the United States. More than one hundred years later, as we recall our own mission history, we are called upon to assist both spiritually and financially the more than 1,150 "young churches" in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and Latin America, all of which have the same needs that the United States once had.

With this in mind, please be as generous as your means will allow this World Mission Sunday so that the Propagation of the Faith can continue to spread the "Good News" to the growing faith communities of our day. So, too, following the call of our Holy Father, Pope Francis, let us pray that our celebration of World Mission Sunday will generate within us a renewed awareness of the need to proclaim the Gospel to all corners of the world.

Timothy Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

HOSPITAL CHAPLAINCY APOSTOLATE

ArchCare has placed 23 priests and religious chaplains to support 26 hospitals and 3 nursing homes throughout the Archdiocese of New York. These Catholic chaplains minister to well over 100,000 patients annually, often at a time of deep spiritual need and crisis for them and their families. They also minister to hospital staff as they deal with patient care and difficult situations. In our own parish, Fr. Martin Ene, Fr. Stephen Okeke, and Fr. Alexis Fernando are assigned at NYU and Bellevue Hospitals full-time to minister to the many Catholic patients in need there.

This is beautiful ministry where the Church is meeting people where they are, when they need it most. It is the work of evangelization and healing: reminding those who need it most that God is with them and they are not alone; helping them to achieve peace or come closer to it; bringing life more abundantly.

More information about this important and beautiful ministry is included in the link below. Please help support it through a contribution and pass this message and link on to anyone who might be interested in providing support. Thank you for your support. <archcare.org/hospitalchaplaincy>

ON PEACE

You must serve the cause of peace. Serve it, and not make use of it for aims other than the true aims of peace. Serve it, and not use this noble standard as a cover for cowardice or selfishness, which refuses to make sacrifices for the common good; not debilitate and pervert the spirit, by evading the call of duty and seeking one's own interests and pleasure. Peace is not a state which can be acquired and made permanent. Peace must be built; it must be built up every day by works of peace. These works of peace are, first of all, social order; then, aid to the poor, who still make up an immense multitude of the world population, aid to the needy, the weak, the sick, the ignorant. Peace must be like a garden, in which public and private beneficence cultivates the choicest flowers of friendship, of solidarity, of charity and love.

– St. Paul VI, Yankee Stadium, 4 October 1965

We remember in our prayers today, St. Paul VI, 262nd Bishop of Rome, who was canonized today by Pope Francis.
