SENIOR SCAM AWARENESS

A number of Senior Citizens have been the victims of unscrupulous fraudulent activities. In response, New York State Attorney General Letitia James, in partnership with New York City Police Department 26th and 32nd Precincts, Borough President Brewer, Congressman Espaillat, Senator Benjamin Assembly Members Dickens and Taylor, and Council Members Perkins and Levine invite you to attend a Senior Scam Awareness event on Morningside Avenue between West 125th and West 126th Streets (ABCD trains to 125th Street) on Monday, 22 July from 5:30–7:30 p.m. The New York State Attorney General will present an overview of the Attorney General’s role regarding these fraudulent activities. At this event, you will have an opportunity to ask specific questions and learn more about information to prevent this from happening and best practices if fraudulent activities occur. Please RSVP to this much needed event to Adrienne Felton at (212) 364–6092 or adrienne.felton@ag.ny.gov.

STATEMENT ON IMMIGRATION RAIDS

The Catholic Charities city-wide and state-wide hotlines will be staffed and activated this weekend and there will be real-time legal support provided by CCNY’s attorneys and volunteers for certain callers in need of emergency help. Catholic Charities is also distributing materials in impacted communities and expanding its intake triage and case capacity. The hotline numbers are: Catholic Charities New York State New Americans Hotline: (800) 566–7636; Catholic Charities ActionNYC Hotline: (800) 354–0365.

“Once again, as the media reports threats of deportation and family separation, Catholic Charities is responding with increased services to support immigrant families, adults and children.” Monsignor Kevin Sullivan said. “Rash harsh talk and actions harm not only immigrants but also communities and neighborhoods throughout the country. I have seen pain on the faces of immigrants who fear the threats that raids pose to their families, their jobs, and their safety. We support and encourage legal immigration, as we also insist on the humane treatment of those who enter without proper documentation seeking protection and opportunity.”

Monsignor Sullivan also reminded New Yorkers and those in the area that there are resources available if they feel they have been unfairly targeted by immigration officials or others.

As part of their mission to provide support to newly arrived immigrants, Catholic Charities is proud to collaborate with both NYS and NYC to operate the New York State (NYS) New American Hotline and the Action NYC Referral Line. The State Hotline is a statewide multilingual immigration information and referral phone service that provides fast, confidential and accurate answers about immigration and citizenship-related questions in over 200 languages. The Action NYC Referral Line provides thousands of legal referrals for consultations throughout New York City. In this time of increased need, the Hotline and ActionNYC Referral Line ensure that individuals receive accurate and confidential information and are referred to the appropriate resources in an expedited fashion. In an expansion of this service, lawyers are also on-hand for individuals in situations that require emergency legal counseling.

Additionally, Catholic Charities has instituted an administrative action response protocol to prepare for and respond to emergency immigration situations at parishes, schools, and other Archdiocesan agencies. When a person in their community experiences an immigration emergency, parish leaders, school principals, Catholic Charities agency directors, and other administrators in the Archdiocese can contact the Immigrant and Refugee Services Division and receive an immediate legal assessment and follow up legal and case management assistance should it be necessary.

LETTER TO A SUFFERING CHURCH

We have a limited number of copies of Bishop Robert Barron’s newest book, Letter to a Suffering Church: A Bishop Speaks on the Sexual Abuse Crisis. Copies will be available first-come, first-served in the narthex of the church and the lobby of the chapel for $1, which may be left in an offering box.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT, normally held on Friday mornings at Our Saviour, will be suspended until September. Adoration will resume on Friday, 6 September.
