Parents, once again we ask you for your help with a few matters. One of our parishioners had volunteered to be a catechist but, for some reason unknown to us, she never showed up for the first class. Several attempts to notify or get in touch with this person have been futile. Therefore, we are now desperate for a teacher for that class. If you are interested, please call Mrs. Noonan at the rectory.

Each year we ask parents to please walk their children to their classes and to pick them up at the classroom. This seems to have worked well with the younger children.

However, with older children in the middle grades, we realize that this request might seem a bit extreme to some and most often children are allowed to run without supervision to and from their cars. But we also have noticed that cars often are in a hurry and there is always the possibility of someone accidentally being hurt. All children "fool around" and aren't as attentive to the cars around them.

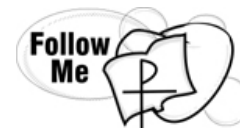

So, we ask you to please use your own judgment in walking your child to and from class. Better safe than sorry. Thank you.

TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Brothers and sisters: Indeed, the Word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart... 'Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?'...Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, 'you are lacking in one thing.'"

How important it is that we listen carefully to the proclamation of the word at mass each week. It is read for our instruction, formation and growth in the Christian life. Try to identify with the people who meet Jesus in the gospels. I pose the same question about my responsibility as I seek eternal life.

The teaching of Jesus of observing the commandments are quite clear and we surely try to keep them. As Jesus informed him that he was lacking one thing, I ask myself what is lacking in what the Lord asks of me. Is it a deeper prayer life? Is it how I can better my family life? Is it how I show my concern for others, for the poor, for those in need? These are penetrating questions as I reflect on His Word today.

DELAY IN INSTALLATION OF MONUMENTS AT ST. MARY'S CEMETERY

Normally, we pour foundations for monuments at our cemetery twice a year – once in the spring – usually before Memorial Day and sometime between the end of September and late October.

This year we have had a very difficult time because of the weather. This past spring and now, in the fall, we are very behind. Each time we have had the cement truck on the calendar to deliver cement, it has either rained a day or so before or on the scheduled day of delivery. The ground HAS TO BE COMPLETELY DRY before the trucks will come in to pour.

Unfortunately, the pouring has not been able to be done. We understand that Cedar Hill Cemetery as well as other area cemeteries have had the same problem with grounds that are too wet.

So, we ask your patience as we wait for the rain/storms to stop long enough for the grounds to dry. We assure you that we would like to complete this work as soon as possible but our hands are tied until the weather cooperates. Thank you for your understanding. Any questions? Please call the rectory.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 7:7-11

This poem discusses how the spirit of wisdom is far more beautiful than any riches could be. All gold is no more than sand when compared to the importance of wisdom, which often leads people to the other good things in life.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:12-13

God's perception of people is called "sharper than any two-edged sword." God is able to know the thoughts and feelings of all his people. We can hide nothing from him, and will need to account for all he has seen in us.

Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

A man asks Jesus how he can share in everlasting life. Jesus tells him to sell his possessions and travel with them. The man refuses and Jesus tells his disciples how difficult it is for a rich person to enter heaven if they are too concerned with their possessions. The disciples remind Jesus that they gave up everything for him, but he assures them they will be rewarded with everlasting life.
