THE SACRAMENTS

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm or by calling the parish office to make an appointment with a priest.

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the weekly homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.com

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things." Jesus felt pity ... and so he taught? Yes. Jesus gave his teachings out of love and concern. He gave them because he knew that they were what his followers needed. He did not teach in order to control, manipulate, brainwash, or coerce us. He did not teach in order to show his wisdom or prove his superiority. Jesus gave us his teachings as a way of guiding us, protecting us, and walking alongside us—a good shepherd.

It’s important for us to welcome the teachings of Christ and his body, the church, in this spirit. Too often, people misconstrue church teaching as something restrictive or controlling instead of understanding that Jesus handed down these teachings to us in order to help us find happiness and fulfillment. When we live according to church teaching, we are doing more than just being "good." We are also staying close to the shepherd of whom today’s psalm speaks: "In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul." These benefits are ours when we follow the voice of the One who loves us.

Sometimes, we may not like what the voice is saying. Sometimes we may be drawn towards a different path or think that the grass is greener elsewhere. But by humbly acknowledging that the Shepherd—and his church—have great wisdom and a unique perspective to share, we will be led in the right direction. Though it may feel like a sacrifice at first, ultimately this loyalty to the flock will enable us to enjoy the contentment of those who declare, "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.”

15º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El Evangelio de Marcos nos ayuda a poner una actitud diferente con respecto al trabajo. Los apóstoles habían sido enviados a una misión y regresaron llenos de aventuras y cosas buenas que habían vivido. Por esta razón Jesús les dice: "Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario, para que descansen un poco" (6, 31). Jesús quiere enseñar que la salud corporal y espiritual es importante. No quiere de sus discípulos hombres y mujeres compulsivos. Nos quiere sanos de mente y de cuerpo para lograr un ministerio productivo y que lleve a la persona a vivir las virtudes teologales dentro de su familia y comunidad. Se necesita comer, descansar, ir al médico y vacacionar. El descanso contemplativo y la actividad es lo que da el equilibrio. Pero, eso sí, acompañados del Buen Pastor. A los esposos, a los líderes parroquiales y en general a toda persona que se afana trabajando. Recuerde que, para seguir tirando de la carreta, debemos de aceptar la invitación de Cristo: "Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario". Al estar a su lado aprenderemos muchas más cosas. ¡Inténtalo!

come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest. mark 6:31

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church, chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org.

Maronite Catholics

Seven Churches, (Latin, Byzantine, Alexandrian, Syriac, Armenian, Maronite, and Chaldean) each bearing a great and ancient history with unique liturgical traditions and culture, comprise the Catholic Church in the Middle East. Each of these Churches is in full communion with Rome, but six with an Eastern tradition are sui iuris, or self-governing, and have their own Patriarchs. All these Churches are Arabic-speaking and immersed in Arabic culture.

The Maronite Catholic Church is the largest of the Eastern Catholic Churches in the Middle East at around 3 million members. It has a strong presence in Lebanon, with smaller communities in Syria, Jordan, Cyprus, and the Holy Land. However, slightly over half its members have emigrated from the Middle East to countries such as Argentina, Brazil, Australia, Mexico, Canada, and the United States. The Maronite Church traces its origin back to a community formed around St. Maron, a 4th century monk who led an ascetic life. They were staunch defenders of the decrees of the Council of Chalcedon and thus received papal recognition in 518 A.D. There is a strong tradition among the Maronites that their Church never lacked communion with the Holy See since its formation in the 4th century. The Patriarch of Antioch of the Maronites resides in Bkerke, Lebanon.

In the Diocese of Orlando, St. Jude Maronite Catholic Church, located at 5555 Dr. Phillips Blvd., Orlando, FL 32819 welcomes you to celebrate the Divine Liturgy (Mass) according to the ancient tradition started by their founder, St. Maron, who died in 410 AD. They are a small, family church and so you can be sure of a warm welcome. Visit their website at: http://www.saintjudechurch.org/

What’s the difference? Eastern & Western Churches

The Eastern Churches originated in that region of the world that was at one time part of the Eastern Roman Empire. These churches possess their own distinctive traditions that may be seen in their liturgy, theology, and law. The Western Church, focused in Rome, is sometimes called the Latin Church. All individual churches, Eastern or Western, that are in communion with the Apostolic See (Rome) are part of the Catholic Church. All the rites of the Catholic Church (please see the above article) are of equal dignity and equally valid. Attendance at a different rite fulfills the Sunday obligation. The Catholic Church is truly universal since it unites so many diverse rites, whose members share a common faith.

In the Diocese of Orlando, Eastern Rite parishes include: St. Nicholas of Myra (Ruthenian) in Orlando, St. Mary’s Protectoress (Ukrainian Byzantine) in Apopka and St. Mary’s Syro-Malabar (East Syrian Rite), Orlando. Visit the Diocese of Orlando’s website at: www.orlandodiocese.org to learn more about these parishes and their Mass times.

Saint of the Week

Sharbel Makhluf
Maronite Rite
1828–1898, Feast day—July 24
Born in a Lebanese mountain village, Youssef was drawn to the life of his uncles, who were monks of the Maronite Rite, but his peasant mother wanted her youngest child to work in the fields. At age 23, he left home for the monastery, taking the name Sharbel, after an early martyr. He was ordained a priest in 1859 and spent the next 16 years in the monastery at Annaya, working, fasting, and praying. From 1875, he lived as a hermit, praying ceaselessly, regarded as a saint by those who knew him. He is the first Maronite saint included in the Latin (Roman) Rite calendar.

Question Mark?

Most Sundays during the year are titled casually as “ORDINARY.” Isn’t that rather ironic for Christ – the most amazing person to walk on the earth!

We are easily fooled by the term “Ordinary Time” and see it as recess time to take our spiritual lives for granted, or as an excuse to put faith on the back burner free from the sacrifices, and the penance of Advent and Lent. It may seem like a vacation time of the year, but nothing could be further from the truth.

Ordinary Time presents us with the opportunity to meet Jesus as did the apostles. They, after three years in close association with him, believed that Jesus was the Son of God. We hear the same teachings and recognize his many miracles, and we too must decide whether we are true followers of Christ or just curious bystanders.

Ordinary Time occurs during the seasons of summer growth and fall harvest. It is signified with the priest at the altar wearing green vestments to urge us to harvest our faith. The gospel readings for Ordinary Time call us to believe and heal together with Christ as we feed and serve others, or simply walk along side with Jesus.

As Ordinary Time unfolds, people begin questioning if Christ may be greater than a charismatic prophet or teacher. It is never an easy time to follow Jesus who at times scares and confuses and can make us feel uncertain. Some begin to doubt Christ’s message finding it too hard to believe. Are we committed to staying with Jesus or are we tempted to edge to the back of the crowd and slip away?

Since ordinary time covers the summer months when many plan journeys or vacations, the Gospels advise us to travel with firmer faith in Jesus. This same Jesus who sends us, as he sent his disciples to evangelize on our journeys into the towns and villages, and to pick up our crosses and follow him.

The Church calls this period Ordinary Time to urge us recommit during these summer months to reading the whole story of Christ’s love, cover to cover, just as Pope Francis repeatedly invites us and not just our Sunday readings.

Here is one plan for reading the Gospels cover to cover: Begin with Mark, the shortest of the Gospels, the one featured in the Sunday readings this year. Read Luke next, for all the Gospels are not the same. Luke relates different segments of Our Lord’s life. Then go to John whose Gospel is very different from the other three and stresses our Lord’s teaching. Finally read Matthew, an expanded version of Mark, to reinforce the story of Jesus when he started his mission. Be sure to read the introductions to each Gospel that explain the unique contributions each Gospel writer offers in telling the history of Jesus’ ministry.

Enjoy this “Ordinary Time” – the stuff which makes up most of life during the year!
