THE SACRAMENTS

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm or by calling the parish office to make an appointment with a priest.

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the weekly homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.com

17º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Esta semana, pasamos al capítulo 6 de Juan. Notemos que a diferencia de los Evangelios sinópticos, en Juan es Jesús quien reparte los panes, haciendo hincapié que todos son invitados que tiene todo en una mesa y Jesús es el único que da de comer. “Enseguida tomó Jesús los panes, y después de dar gracias a Dios, se los fue repartiendo a los que se habían sentado” (6, 11). Toda la narración tiene un sentido profético con referencia a la institución de la Eucaristía.

El mensaje de Jesús es importante, él también se preocupa de las cosas materiales que ocupa la persona. No se puede evangelizar si se tiene hambre. La justicia es llevar lo necesario y luego hacer la labor del ministerio. Esto nos lo han enseñado dos grandes profetas de nuestro tiempo. Monseñor Romero y la Madre Teresa de Calcuta. Ellos abogaron por un ministerio. Esto nos lo ha enseña dos grandes profetas de nuestro tiempo.

En caso de que en el mismo se tenga en duda antes, este signo lo hizo claro. Jesús era el Mesías. El pueblo dijo, “Ese es el verdadero profeta, el que vendrá en el nombre de Dios.” Cada persona en asistencia tenía un nuevo entendimiento del poder y providencia del Señor en ese momento cuando ellos devoraban su comida. Jesús no sólo satisfizo sus necesidades, sino que va más allá de la necesidad multiplicando los panes y peces en una abundancia increíble. Fue como si eso dijera, “Yo quiero que todos mis necesidades sean cubiertas y más.”

Este milagro, este produciendo, necesitando a Jesús es el mismo Jesús que creemos saber. Este es el mismo Jesús que llamamos nuestro Dios. Este es el mismo hombre que es el Señor. Este es el mismo hombre que es nuestro Salvador. Este es el mismo hombre que tenemos la potencia para proveerlo para usted.

Este milagro, este produciendo, necesitando de Jesús es el mismo Jesús que creemos saber. Este es el mismo Jesús que llamamos nuestro Dios. Este es el mismo hombre que es el Señor. Make All Souls Your Parish Home...

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found on the altar or outbuilding, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulsanford.org. Why not sign up today?

Our DAWG teens and adults did great at Catholic Heart Work Camp (CHWC), Charleston, SC this past week! Painting, building wheelchair ramps, helping with repairs at local schools and even working on a special equestrian farm. Thank you to our parish family who have kept us in prayer and to all those who where able to sponsor our teens in some way! A special thanks to the Knights of Columbus and the Council of Catholic Women for their financial and prayerful support.

DAWG—CHWC...
Contemplative Prayer...

by Fr. Larry Rice

In the Catholic tradition, we have many kinds of prayer. We have liturgical prayer, which follows a set ritual and is prayed communally. Then, we have personal or private prayer, which has often been divided into prayers of praise, thanksgiving, contrition, and supplication. These prayers acknowledge God's greatness, express our thanks for all God has done for us, express our sorrow for our sins, and ask God for what we need.

But throughout our history, Catholics have also engaged in contemplative prayer. This sort of prayer or meditation is much less about saying things to God, and is more about listening to what God is saying to us. The Catechism of the Catholic Church, in its section on contemplative prayer, quotes St. Teresa who wrote, “Contemplative prayer in my opinion, is nothing else than a close sharing between friends; it means taking time frequently to be alone with him who we know loves us.” In its sixteen paragraphs on contemplative prayer, the Catechism eloquently describes aspects of this kind of prayer, calling it a “gift,” a “gaze of faith fixed on Jesus,” “hearing the Word of God,” and an experience of silence (CCC, nos. 2709–2724).

What the Catechism doesn’t describe is how to do it. For that information, I’d recommend the writings of those who have excelled at this kind of prayer, specially saints like John of the Cross, Teresa of Avila, Catherine of Siena, Teresa of Liseaux, and Julian of Norwich. Contemporary expressions of contemplative prayer include methods like scripture prayer and Eucharistic adoration.

Prayer is the essential communication of the Christian life, and contemplative prayer challenges us to make sure that we’re not just speaking to God, but actively listening to God’s speaking to us.

Fr. Rice is Vocations Director for the Paulist Fathers. Sunday by Sunday, USCCB

Three ways to pray in Ignatian Spirituality...

1. The Examen: This is not the same thing as an “examination of conscience” one might do prior to confession. Rather it is a roughly five-step process to review the content of the day. It moves through stages of looking for moments of gratitude; to reviewing the events of the day; to calling to mind anything we regret or are sorry for; to deciding if we need to reconcile with anyone; to asking God to be present and give us the grace necessary for the next day.

2. Consolations and Desolations: A consolation is any experience in which we feel consoled by God’s presence. These would be moments in the day when we feel particularly peaceful, joy-filled, hopeful, loving. A desolation is an experience in which we feel distanced from God. These would be moments of confusion, fear, or loneliness. This is not as simple as saying when you were happy and sad in a day—this is a deeper reflection than that. These are the times that we felt closest to God and farthest from God.

3. Imaginative Contemplation: This is a method of praying with Scripture in which we use our imagination to enter into the passage. Most often it is prayed with a gospel passage that moves us toward an encounter with Jesus. In preparation, we read the passage once or twice. Then, often with eyes closed, we use our senses to begin to enter into the scene described in the passage: the sounds, smells; what the people look like, wear, and what we feel drawn to—all leading up to a personal conversation with Jesus—and encounter with our living God.

For a shawl you can contact the parish office or Stephanie Fuoco at sfuoco@cfl.rr.com.

Volunteer for our K-12 Faith Formation Program!

An in-service for our Faith Formation Teachers will be held on Saturday, August 22 in the Parish Office Conference Room. We will begin with Mass in the Historic Chapel at 8:30 am. The session will end at 12:30pm.

We need teachers to substitute for all grades in Faith Formation. Please pray about joining our team! We meet on Tuesday and Wednesday from 6:30pm to 7:45pm. We are blessed at All Souls to have so many faithful and hardworking catechists. There are times when one or several of these catechist cannot teach a class. This is where the substitutes come in. You are instrumental in keeping the classes going without interruptions. Having someone to fill in was one of our biggest challenges last year. Please contact Jenny Mansingh if you feel that you would like to help in this area. You do not have to commit to every week, only on days when you are needed.

If you would like to serve in the area Faith Formation but are not yet ready to commit to be a catechist, I invite you to consider serving as a teacher’s aide. We are looking for aides to assist in the 8th grade or higher. If you are over the age of 15 you will need to be diocesan required Safe Environment/Fingerprinting process. Please contact Jenny Mansingh, Director of Faith Formation for more information on becoming a part of our great Faith Formation team. Students seeking to earn service hours are welcome to serve, as well.
