Sacraments...

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm or by calling the parish office to make an appointment with a priest.

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the weekly homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.org

26º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

“Ojalá que todo el pueblo de Dios fuera profeta y descendiera sobre todos ellos el espíritu del Señor” (Nm 11, 29). Moisés ya no puede seguir solo con la carga de todo el pueblo y acepta la libertad del Espíritu de Dios que sopla donde y cuando quiere. Lo ideal del mensaje es que todos seamos profetas en lugar de profetizar solo los que nos llaman a serlo. Incluso nosotros, los discípulos, podemos ayudar a que todos seamos “profetas” en los diferentes grupos.

La elección es nuestra: decidir si queremos seguir a Dios o seguimos a otros. La cuestión de la pregunta de Moisés “¿Por qué me hiciste caer en estos trabajos y pesar de mis pecados, ¿por qué me reformaste y me castigaste?” (Nm 11, 14). Se trata de la cuestión de la ayuda que tanto Moisés como nosotros recibimos de Dios. Moisés, en su caso, fue castigado por haber sido tan gentil con el pueblo que le pasó a él. La pregunta de Moisés es: ¿Dónde estoy fallando? ¿Estoy haciendo bien mi trabajo de profeta? ¿Estoy aceptando esta situación o estoy resistiendo? La pregunta de Moisés es una pregunta que cada uno de nosotros debe hacerse.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time...

"It is better for you to enter into life crippled than with two feet to be thrown into Gehenna." Jesus’ listeners would have recognized this reference. Gehenna was in fact a deep ravine located outside of Jerusalem that had a sordid past. It had been the site of pagan rituals in which children were forced to walk through fire. Thus the spot had become as a symbol for the fires of hell.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is making a dramatic contrast between "life" (heaven) and Gehenna (hell). He emphasizes that no sacrifice is too great to keep one out of the miseries of hell. His images are shocking. Cutting off hands and feet? Plucking out eyes? Ouch! Is hell really so bad that we’d rather go to heaven maimed than go to hell in one piece? Apparently so.

Some interpreters suggest that Jesus was using hyperbole to make his point. Perhaps, but whether it was literal or figurative, the point remains clear: we need to do whatever it takes to avoid sin and ultimately to avoid hell. The catechism defines this state of eternal misery as "definitive self-exclusion from communion with God" (§1033). Yes, self-exclusion. God doesn’t "send" anyone to hell. Rather, someone chooses hell when he or she freely chooses something over God and won’t repent.

The choice is ours: cut out the source of the sin—painful though it may be—or stubbornly march with our beloved sins straight into Gehenna. Realistically, what we choose “over” God are not so much our physical body parts as things like a high-paying job that isn’t ethical, a favorite pastime that isn’t morally upright, or a relationship that isn’t chaste. Jesus tells us clearly today, whatever it is that “causes you to sin, cut it off.” Period.

All Souls Catholic Church
September 27, 2015
Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a which registration card. These may be found narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today? We Welcome our new parishioners:

Eric Medina, Gloria Alvarado & Oscar Medina
Michael, Debra, Colin & Sean Thompson

Parents, unsure or anxious about their child’s interest in the priesthood or religious life, remain confident that the Lord knows what their vocation should be. He will lead them if you prepare and encourage them to respond to the call. Remember what Mary said to the servants at Cana: ”Do whatever he tells you” (Jn 2:5).

Saint of the Week

Thérèse of Lisieux

1873–1897

Memorial—October 1

Left motherless at four-years old, she followed two older sisters into the cloistered Carmelites, entering at fifteen as Sister Thérèse of the Infant Jesus. St. Thérèse was unable to travel to the missions during her lifetime, but prayed fervently for their success. In 1896, she contracted tuberculosis and after months of suffering died at the age of twenty-four. Posthumous publication of her autobiography, “The Story of a Soul,” prompted popular devotion. The “Little Flower” is remembered for her “little way” of seeking perfection in the ordinary with a simple but total trust in God. She is the patron of missions and missionaries. In 1997, St. John Paul II declared her a Doctor of the Church.

Ministers to the Sick needed!

We are in need of individuals (presently serving in our parish as EMHC’s) to serve in our Ministry to the Sick (MTS). Eucharistic Ministers to the Sick to bring communion to those who cannot attend Mass because of illness, injury or age issues. These ministers keep parishioners connected to our parish and bring them the comfort and strength of the Eucharist during difficult times in their lives. We minister to people in their homes, in nursing homes, assisted living facilities, hospitals, and retirement communities within our parish.

Time commitment for this ministry varies by minister. Some choose to commit to bringing communion to a homebound parishioner weekly for many years. Ministers choose the commitments that fit their work schedule and family needs. We firmly believe that the Holy Spirit guides our Minister to the homebound parishioner who needs them the most.

If you would be willing to offer your time and prayerful support to those that are unable to attend Mass, your involvement as a MTS member would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Adam Heyboer at 407.697.4402 for more information.
