Sacraments...

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm or by calling the parish office to make an appointment with a priest.

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the weekly homily by visiting: www.allsoulsanford.com

"Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female ..." In today’s Gospel, Jesus sheds light on the nature of Christian marriage. The Pharisees were trying to trick him, but Jesus transformed their plot into a teachable moment. Speaking of the Mosaic law that allowed a man to divorce his wife, Jesus indicated that this man-made law was not the standard by which marriage should be understood. Instead, he referred back to “the beginning of creation”.

In the story of Adam and Eve, we see the first human couple living in a state of perfect harmony and bliss with each other and with God. As today’s Old Testament reading reveals, Adam was thrilled with Eve. “This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh,” he declares with joy and relief. God’s original plan for marriage was part of the joyful paradise in Eden. But sin entered the world, and with it came a rupture in the pristine unity of the man and the woman.

The tensions between husbands and wives have been problematic ever since. Thus Jesus explains divorce as the result of sin (i.e., "the hardness of your hearts"). But as always, Jesus calls us to transcend the slavery of sin. And more than that, he promises us his own divine help, his grace, and his Spirit to enable us to accomplish what we could not do on our own power. So when he replaces the Mosaic law with his commandment about marriage—“what God has joined together, no human being must separate”—he is calling us to a more beautiful understanding of marriage: one that is blessed by the true marital unity that can transcend the sadness of sin.

27º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El Papa Francisco ha hecho hincapié en la importancia de la fidelidad en el matrimonio en los tiempos actuales. Nos dice que las palabras de Jesús de hace más de dos mil años no son en vano, sino que siguen vigentes: “De modo que yo no os doy, sino una sola cosa. Por eso, lo que Dios unió, que no lo separe el hombre” (Mc 10, 8-9). El compromiso y la paternidad responsable van de la mano del proyecto de Dios. Hombre y mujer son importantes en sus decisiones de pareja, sabiendo que su fundamento viene desde el principio de la creación: “No es bueno que el hombre esté solo. Voy a hacerle a alguien como él, para que lo ayude” (Gn 2, 18).

Como ya nos dimos cuenta, el tema de las lecturas de hoy se basa en la visión cristiana del matrimonio. Por lo tanto, cabe que nos hagamos las siguientes preguntas. ¿Qué opinan los jóvenes y los jóvenes adultos del matrimonio? ¿Por qué temen al compromiso de formar un hogar? ¿Por qué sienten muchas parejas que viven juntos que la palabra “matrimonio” está pasada de moda? Las lecturas de este domingo nos ayudan a hacer un examen de conciencia colectivo. De igual manera, nos invitan a darnos cuenta de que tenemos responsabilidad sobre el proyecto de Dios acerca del matrimonio cristiano. No temremos en saco roto estas enseñanzas de Jesús. Veamos la forma de apoyar a los matrimonios de nuestras comunidades parroquiales. Podamos con fervor también por el éxito del sínodo mundial de las familias, principalmente por las familias que están separadas a causa de las leyes de inmigración. Confiemos que el ejemplo de la familia de Nazaret --la comunicación y el respeto mutuo-- sea el motor para que Dios reine en el hogar.

Make All Souls Your Parish Home...

Join Our Family of Faith

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a which registration card. These may be found narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today? We Welcome our new parishioners:

Faith Formation Reminders

Attention Parent and Students

First Reconciliation Preparation Class, Session II is scheduled for Monday, October 12 at 6:30 pm in the Historic Chapel. Please plan on arriving early so that you can sign in and be seated by 6:30pm. A reminder that these classes are mandatory. Failure to attend will result in a one year postponement of the sacrament for your child. Please note: Sacramental Preparation for First Reconciliation and Sacramental Preparation for First Holy Communion go hand in hand.

DO NOT WAIT FOR THE SPRING TO BEGIN THE PREPARATION FOR RECEPTION OF FIRST HOLY COMMUNION.

Confirmation Preparation classes will begin in February. However, you are reminded that it is a two year program. You must be either enrolled in a Catholic School or in our Faith Formation program for seventh and eighth grade. Once all the requirements are met, the sacrament will be received at the end of the eighth grade school year.

Please direct all questions to Ms Jenny Mansingh, Director of Faith Formation, 407.322.3795.

Join Fr. Tito Rojas on a wonderful journey to THE HOLY LAND, February 22, 2016—10 spiritually uplifting days. $2895 pp/dbl occ (airfare from NY included) R/T flights from Orlando an additional $150 pp. Call Jorge Londoño 407.921.3957 for more information.
