4th Sunday of Lent

“All the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.”” Jesus crossed lines that weren’t supposed to be crossed. He talked to women in public, touched the “unclean” to heal them, and chummed it up with tax collectors and sinners. This didn’t make sense. It didn’t fit into the standard categories. And so the religious leaders began to complain.

In response to this, Jesus told the parable of the prodigal son. Through this story, he illustrated that God loves all of his children even when they have not behaved perfectly. But more than this, the tale also deals with the resentment of the older son—the one who always followed the law. Like the self-righteous Pharisees and scribes, the older brother complained. “All these years I served you,” the son said, “and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends.” But how does the father respond? “My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours.” In other words, the older brother had no reason to complain or be angry. He already enjoyed all good gifts. The father simply wanted him to rejoice that his brother had returned home. “He was lost and has been found.”

It’s important for those of us who attend Mass regularly, participate in the sacraments, and serve in our parishes not to fall into the trap of being like the bitter older brother or the complaining Pharisees. We must welcome everyone in our midst with joy, not resentment or judgment. It can be easy to think that others don’t deserve as much as we do, and to forget to be grateful for all that we have. But we are ALL called to “celebrate and rejoice” when the lost return home.

4 Domingo de Cuaresma

Qué triste es para los padres cuando sus hijos les piden la herencia mucho antes de que ellos mueran. Casi siempre los padres responden a sus hijos como el padre de la parábola de hoy le responde a su hijo mayor: “Hijo, tú siempre estás conmigo y todo lo mío es tuyo”. En el Evangelio de hoy, el hijo menor demanda su herencia, mientras que el padre de la parábola responde a sus hijos como el padre de la parábola de hoy le responde a sus hijos: “Celebrate and rejoice” when the lost return home.

Ambos hijos buscaban un arreglo atractivo con un sentido oficial de recibir algo. Ellos calcularon lo que podían recibir y querían estar más cerca de lo que no recibieron. ¿Somos nosotros así? ¿Cobramos a Dios lo que nos da? A lo mejor sí, o a lo mejor no. Pero sí debemos de estar seguros de que no teman lo que no han recibido.

Prayer for the Year of Mercy

Lord Jesus Christ who is Mercy Himself, we entrust ourselves and our children to Your care. We believe in Your love for us and Your desire for our healing. We pray, in this “Year of Mercy,” for the return of countless souls to Your heart. We embrace our cross with Yours, knowing it is there we will find the love deep enough to heal our wounds.

Jesus, we trust in You!

Make All Souls Your Parish Home Today!

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today?

That Man Is You!

Men of the parish, please join our meetings at the Knights of Columbus Meeting Hall, 2509 S Oak Ave., Sanford at 6am each Saturday. That Man Is You! honestly addresses the pressures and temptations that men face, especially those relating to their roles as husbands and fathers. Please contact Scott Kinser: scottkinser@gmail.com for more information.

DAWG Ministry: Easter Cross Witness

This weekend through Palm Sunday, we encourage all parishioners to stop by the Welcome Table in the Narthex and purchase the Easter Cross Witness sign, "He is Risen!". Your $8 donation will support our DAWG annual mission trip and be a testimony to your belief in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ on Easter Sunday. Beginning on Palm Sunday, place your cross on your lawn or in your window, the blank side out and turn it, on Easter Sunday to display, "He is Risen!". The cross (you may purchase more than one) is not meant to be yard art, or Easter decoration, but a witness to the Risen Christ. Hopefully you will have opportunities to share with your neighbors the hope that is within you. Quantities are limited make your purchases while supplies last!

JOIN THE EASTER CROSS WITNESS!

A note from Fr. Ed McCarthy

My dear fellow parishioners,

On this past Tuesday, March 1st I celebrated two anniversaries! It was five years ago March 1, 2010 that I retired and began my ministry here at All Souls.

I want to thank Father Trout and Father Medina for making this possible. I want to thank Father Ken Metz for being such a wonderful housemate at the rectory. Finally, I want to express my appreciation to all of you and the staff for making these last five years so wonderful.

This coming Wednesday, March 8th, I will having surgery on my right knee. I will be away for about 6 to 8 weeks. Please keep me in your prayers

Again, thank you for everything!

Father Ed McCarthy.

One of the proofs of a really close friendship is when you can't say one person's name without thinking of the other. This shows up in history, with names like Lewis and Clark. It's in story books, with names like Hansel and Gretel, or Jack and Jill. When it comes to saints, there are many examples, but one of the most prominent duos is Perpetua and Felicity.

Perpetua was a young Christian noblewoman and Felicity was a young Christian slave. The two were arrested for their belief in Christ, during the persecution of Emperor Septimius Severus: at this time, Perpetua was a new mother, and Felicity was eight months pregnant.

Together, the two women helped each other through the heat, darkness, and brutality of the guards in the prison. Two days before their scheduled death, Felicity gave birth to her daughter in the prison, and the child was adopted by a Christian woman. Perpetua and Felicity were sent out to face the arena together, and after being exposed to the beasts, were killed by having their throats cut. These last days of the women were recorded by Perpetua, whose diary became one of the most famous accounts in the early Church of the suffering of the martyrs.

Our Adoration Chapel—Wont you please spend an hour with Jesus in our Adoration Chapel? Open Monday through Friday from 9am to 9pm. You may bring your own prayers books, read the Bible, pray the Rosary or just sit, relax and enjoy the sweet peace that comes from simply being in the real presence of God. The Master is waiting for you. Contact Mary Butler at 407.321.0029 to schedule a regular visitation time or as an "Adorer". Please note: If you have never visited our Adoration Chapel before, contact the parish office at 407.322.3795 before your first visit for important information.

Grupo de Oración: “Jesús, María y José” Cordialmente los invita: A compartir con nosotros un momento de oración y alabanza a Nuestro Dios. Todos los Lunes a las 7:15pm Salon Social.

Remembering our deceased diocesan priests

Let us remember the truly remarkable priests who have impacted our lives and especially those deceased priests of the Diocese of Orlando. Let us pray during this month of March for the repose of the soul of:

- March 18, 1991 Rev. Paul Kajdan
- March 20, 1982 Rev. Thomas Gross
- March 22, 1972 Msgr. Martin B. Power
- March 25, 1978 Rev. John P. Molloy

Prayer for our Deceased Priests: O God, you raised your servants, to the sacred priesthood of Jesus Christ, according to the Order of Melchisedech, giving them the sublime power to offer the Eternal Sacrifice, to bring the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ down upon the altar, and to absolve the sins of men in your own Holy Name. We beseech you to reward their faithfulness and to forget their faults, admitting them speedily into your holy Presence, there to enjoy forever the recompense of their labors. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pope Francis, Shepherd of Truth—Notable quotations from Pope Francis and official teachings of the Roman Catholic Church...

...Mary attests that the mercy of the Son of God knows no bounds and extends to everyone, without exemptions. Let us address her in the words of the Salve Regina...so that she may never tire of turning her merciful eyes upon us, and make us worthy to contemplate the face of mercy, her son Jesus.

Food Pantry Need of the Week: Boxed potatoes. Last Week: Thanks to all of you, we collected 402 items with a retail value of $777.

The Power of a Scholarship: One of our recent Scholarship winners was a young man who had an excellent history of volunteer work and top grades, all while working a part-time job. At the end of his junior year his family moved to the Midwest to live with his grandparents. His father had lost his job. Because of health issues, he had not been able to locate another job and yet was not ill enough to qualify for disability. This young man decided to stay locally so he could finish his senior year.

A St. Vincent de Paul Scholarship helped ease his transition into college. This year, we have fewer resources for our Scholarship Program as we’re only able to provide two $1,000 scholarships, down from four last year. Would you help us provide one additional scholarship? Donations marked “Scholarship” will be earmarked for this education assistance. Thank you!

It’s Scholarship Time

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP) Conference at All Souls will award educational financial assistance for the 2016/2017 school year to students from schools located in the geographical boundaries of Seminole or Volusia Counties or attending Bishop Moore or Father Lopez High Schools. The awards are for students of any faith who are entering a post-secondary course of study at an accredited college, university or technical school.

Financial aid of up to $1,000 per scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic achievement, financial need, school and community activities and personal qualities and strengths. To be eligible, a student must have a grade point average of at least 2.5. A St. Vincent de Paul member will be assigned to the student as a personal mentor and liaison with the Society.
