Jesus, I Trust in You
2o Domingo de Pascua

"La Iglesia tiene la misión de anunciar la misericordia de Dios, corazón palpitante del Evangelio, que por su medio debe alcanzar la mente y el corazón de toda persona" (Misericordiae Vultus, número 12). Este Segundo Domingo de Pascua es llamado de la Misericordia Divina. En medio del gozo de la Pascua Dios se manifiesta por medio de su Hijo muerto y resucitado y el discípulo es invitado a dejarse modelar por Jesús. La liturgia de hoy pretende hacernos vivir y vibrar con los apóstoles la primera semana de la Resurrección.

Por lo tanto, cabe preguntarnos lo siguiente. ¿Cómo estamos celebrando la Pascua? ¿Dónde vemos la misericordia de Dios en nuestra vida? ¿Creemos porque hemos visto? O, dejaremos que el Señor nos diga: "¡Dichosos los que creen sin haber visto!" (Jn 20, 29). La paciencia de Dios se manifiesta en esta Pascua. Porque en esta Pascua Dios habla y nos invita a dejarnos modelar por él.

"Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" The disciples were paralyzed by fear. After the Crucifixion, they had locked themselves in a room and were keeping a low profile. They didn’t want to end up how Jesus had ended up. But the Lord stepped right into this paranoia and dispelled it in an instant: "The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord."

Although these first Christians were very concerned about preserving their lives, the fact is that living hole in an attic wasn’t a life of much freedom or joy. Jesus wanted his followers to have the fullness of life, but this required trust in him and his promises. As today’s Gospel puts it, through the belief that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, "you may have life in his name." When we come to really accept who Jesus is, there is no more need for a life of slavery to fear—whatever that fear may be, whether it’s fear for our health; fear for our reputation; fear for our comfort; or even fear that our sins are too big for forgiveness.

Today as we celebrate the feast of Divine Mercy, we remember that God’s love is strong enough to conquer the greatest of all human fears: death itself. This confidence leads us to a renewed joy. As Pope Francis wrote in his declaration of this, the Year of Mercy, "Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope." Once we are firmly established in this hope, we are called to be witnesses of mercy to others. The Holy Father continues with a challenge for all of us, "Jesus asks us also to forgive and to give. To be instruments of mercy because it was we who first received mercy from God."

Attendance Last Week
Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today?
