The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

“...and when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.” Today’s Gospel shows us that Jesus wants to do more than satisfy our needs. He wants to give us an experience of fullness and abundance. He not only miraculously fed the crowd of thousands; he also provided enough to make a mountain of leftovers. More than they needed, more than they ever expected. That’s what Jesus gave. And it’s what he continues to give us every time we receive the Eucharist. This too is a miraculous meal. Like the multiplication of “five loaves and two fish,” Jesus turns something small—bread and wine—into something abundant and overflowing: his body, blood, soul, and divinity. Through this sacrament we experience the gift of union with Jesus and the resulting graces that come from encountering him. Just like the crowds gathered that day in a deserted place, we come to Jesus with our emptiness—our needs, our weaknesses, our fears—and he fills us up until we too are “satisfied.”

The prayer after Communion on today’s feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ reminds us that what we experience at Mass is a foretaste of that ultimate satisfaction that we will experience in heaven: “Grant, O Lord, we pray, that we may delight for all eternity in that share of your precious Body and Blood.” Receiving the Lord in the Eucharist is a momentous miracle and an earthly glimpse into heaven. May today’s celebration help remind us to be ever grateful for this most glorious gift.

La Santísima Trinidad

La liturgia de hoy nos lleva a un compromiso hacia la participación y valoración consiente y activa de la Eucaristía. En muchos lugares este día hacen procesión con el Santísimo Sacramento; en otros ya se ha perdido esta bella costumbre. De cualquier manera, la Eucaristía es un sacramento que pide y exige cambio de actitudes, internas y externas. La palabra Eucaristía significa “acción de gracias”. Jesús en su vida terrena vivía dando gracias y también nosotros debemos hacer de nuestra propia vida una continua acción de gracias. ¿Pero a quién debemos dar gracias? ¿Por qué y para que debemos dar gracias? Jesús nos enseña que es importante dar gracias al Padre del cielo. Veamos el texto de hoy: “Después Jesús tomó en sus manos los cinco panes y los dos pescados, y levantando su mirada al cielo, pronuncio sobre ellos una oración de acción de gracias, los partió y los fue dando a los discípulos, para que ellos los distribuyeran” (Lc 9, 16).

San Pablo también nos ayuda a reflexionar en las siguientes palabras de la Eucaristía: “Esto es mi cuerpo, que se entrega por ustedes. Hagan esto en memoria mía” (1 Cor 11, 24). Y ¿qué es esto que tenemos que hacer en memoria de Cristo nuestro Señor? En primer lugar es hacer lo que Cristo hizo, dar de comer a los pobres, vestir al desnudo, visitar al enfermo, etcétera. En segundo lugar, dar la vida por los demás, quiere decir trabajar y llevar el sustento a casa, amar sin reservas a la familia, perdonar al que nos ha ofendido. Recuerda, no se puede comer el cuerpo y beber la sangre de Cristo y seguir viviendo egoístamente encerrados en uno mismo.

Protocols for Receiving Holy Communion

The Reality of the Eucharist – On this solemn feast we are called above all to faith in the fact, as revealed by the Lord himself, that the Eucharist, the Holy Communion we partake of, is in fact, a reception of the very Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, whole and entire, in his glorified state. We do not partake of a symbol, the Eucharist is not a metaphor, it is truly the Lord. Neither is it a “piece” of his flesh, but is Christ, whole and entire. Scripture attests to this in many places. Let this Feast of Corpus Christi/The Body and Blood of Christ be a time of reflection and review of our internal and external posture as we go forth to receive our Lord, Jesus Christ. How do you receive Holy Communion? Do you go up mindlessly, shuffling along in the Communion line in a mechanistic way? Or do you go up powerfully aware of He, whom you are about to receive? Do you remember, do you have vividly present to your mind what the Lord has done for you? Are you grateful and amazed at what he has done and what he offers? Or do you approach the Sacrament mindlessly as something put into your mouth?

SIGN OF REVERENCE—Each communicant is to make a sign of reverence before receiving the Host and/or the Precious Blood. In the United States, that gesture is to be a bow. For the sake of keeping the communion line flowing smoothly, you should make your bow just as the person in front of you is receiving.

FOR ALL COMMUNICANTS—As you are about to receive the Host or the Precious Blood, the Minister of Communion will say “The Body of Christ” or “The Blood of Christ.” The correct response is simply “Amen.” The word “Amen” is prescribed because it expresses many layers of theological meaning contained in this brief ritual dialogue. No other response should be used (for example: “I believe” or “My Lord and my God”). It is particularly inappropriate to respond with “Thank You” or some other form of secular or seasonal greeting (“Merry Christmas” or “Happy Easter”).

RECEIVING THE HOST IN THE HAND—The proper way to receive the Host in the hand is to place one hand flat on top of the other so that the open palm is facing upward. Saint John Chrysostom described this beautiful gesture as making of your hands a throne for the King of Kings. In order to indicate clearly that you intend to receive in your hands, you should have your hands in this position already when you approach the Minister of Communion and not wait until after the dialogue “The Body of Christ”/“Amen.” It is not appropriate to receive the Host by taking it with two fingers (as if “pluckling” or “pinching”) from the Minister of Communion. Once the Minister of Communion has placed the Host onto your palm, step to the side and consume it immediately by taking it with the fingers of the lower hand and placing the Host in your mouth. It is not appropriate to take the Host with your mouth directly from your open palm.

RECEIVING THE HOST ON THE TONGUE—After the dialogue, “The Body of Christ”/“Amen.” Open your mouth wide, stick out your tongue (as if making a table for Our Lord), and hold still. Please do not move your head, neck, tongue, mouth or body. Do not move until the Minister has placed the Eucharist on your tongue and has removed their hand otherwise you may get the Eucharist on the nose, on the teeth, or it may fall on to the floor.

RECEIVING FROM THE CUP—The procedure is similar to that of receiving the Host: as you approach the Minister of the Cup, bow as a sign of reverence. The Minister will say “The Blood of Christ” and you are to answer “Amen.” Take the cup in your own hands; take a small sip of the Precious Blood and then slowly and carefully return the cup to the Minister. Avoid quick sudden movements with the cup so as not to spill any of the Precious Blood.

RECEIVING BY INTUCTION—(dipping the Host into the Precious Blood) In the Catholic Church’s protocols for Holy Communion, self-intinction is considered highly improper and is not to be done.

Catholic Heart Workcamp

This June, 55 teens and adults from our Youth Ministry program, D.A.W.G. will be traveling to Richmond, VA to serve alongside over 400 youth from all over the country. We will be serving the neglected, brokenhearted and marginalized in any way needed. Pope Francis has called us all to be living witnesses of God’s mercy. We will feed the hungry, visit the sick and clothe the naked. We will participate in the Sacraments all week, grow in our Catholic faith and fortify our relationships with God.

Will you help? We know it’s a difficult time to consider making investments, but that is what we are asking. Will YOU make an investment in the young people of All Souls? With a small donation towards our mission trip you would be a part of the transformation of our teens, the people we serve and in the life of our church.

We need to raise close to $650 per student. These are teens you know well in our parish. They are Servers, Vacation Bible School leaders, Young Vincentians and more and they need your help.

Please consider making an investment in us! Checks may be made payable to All Souls Catholic Church and mailed to the parish office, attention Michelle Murphy. (301 W. 8th Street, Sanford 32771). Donations can also be made online through “Online Giving” at allsoulsanford.org

No amount is too small! If you are unable to donate at this time would you please keep us in your prayers? Every day we will be praying in thanksgiving for all of our All Souls Parish family.

Prayer for our Deceased Priests: O God, you raised your servants, to the sacred priesthood of Jesus Christ, according to the Order of Melchisedech, giving them the sublime power to offer the Eternal Sacrifice, to bring the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ down upon the altar, and to absolve the sins of men in your own Holy Name. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
