The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm or by calling the parish office to make an appointment with a priest. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulsanford.org/reconciliation.

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the weekly homily by visiting: www.allsoulsanford.org

Scripture Reflection
15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"He replied to him, 'You have answered correctly; do this and you will live.'" In today's Gospel a scholar questions Jesus about how to gain eternal life. In case everyone ever wonders whether heaven is within reach, one only needs to refer to this Gospel. Jesus provides a clear answer that gives us a clear plan of action: We are to love God with all that we are, and also to love our neighbors. Really, it's that simple.

The scholar, however, complicated things to make himself look better. Instead of accepting the simplicity of Jesus’ instruction, he wanted to split hairs, asking, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied with the story of the Good Samaritan and the lesson that our neighbors are not just those we know or love. Rather, our neighbor is the person that needs our help, the person whom we would rather ignore, the person whom God puts in our path. In short, everyone is our neighbor and we are called to treat everyone with mercy. This is part of how we gain eternal life.

But this flows from the first element of Jesus’ answer. First and foremost, Jesus instructs us to love God "with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind." When we love God in this way, truly as the Lord of our life, then loving our neighbors becomes the easy part. When our hearts and minds are full of the love of God—who loves all people-then it will necessarily follow that we too will desire to share that love with others and not count the cost. The Good Samaritan is an excellent example of this kind of love. Without hope of repayment, he gave of his time and his money to help the poor victim. But in return, the Samaritan will surely “gain eternal life.”

15º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"Maestro, ¿qué debo hacer para conseguir la vida eterna? Observemos que en el Evangelio de hoy hay un diálogo de preguntas y respuestas. Una parábola muy conocida en medio de este diálogo es contada por Jesús. La parábola del buen samaritano. Muchos oyentes como en el tiempo de Jesús pueden hacerse los sordos y quedarlos siempre con el mismo comentario de siempre y exclamar. ¡Esos que se pasan de largo! ¡Qué malas personas son! Es fácil dejar a otros con la carga de los demás, quedando tan tranquilos porque otros hacen lo que a mí me toca hacer. ¡Eso no se vale! Tenemos que fijarnos hoy en la frase final del Evangelio. “Entonces Jesús le dijo: ‘Anda y haz tú lo mismo’.”

De la segunda pregunta básica es que Jesús cuenta la parábola. "¿Y quién es mi prójimo?" La parábola termina con una pregunta, para que el mismo que tiene duda responda. "¿Cuál de estos tres te parece que se portó como prójimo del hombre que fue asaltado por los ladrones?" La respuesta fue, "El que tuvo compasión de él". Si hiciéramos que se portó como prójimo del hombre que fue asaltado los malos ladrones, en su forma literal. Pero la parábola nos confronta con el hecho de que la respuesta verdadera está no en cómo actuamos, sino en cómo percibimos el amor de Dios. "¿Y quién es mi prójimo?" La parábola termina con una pregunta, para que el mismo que tiene duda responda. "¿Cuál de estos tres te parece que se portó como prójimo del hombre que fue asaltado por los ladrones?" La respuesta fue, "El que tuvo compasión de él". Si hiciéramos que se portó como prójimo del hombre que fue asaltado los malos ladrones, en su forma literal. Pero la parábola nos confronta con el hecho de que la respuesta verdadera está no en cómo actuamos, sino en cómo percibimos el amor de Dios.

Everyday Stewardship:
Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

What does it mean to give of yourself completely, without reservation, without fear, and without a concern for the cost? Should it matter if the person who needs us is unlike us in skin color, religion, or nationality? What does real mercy look like?

Jesus answered these questions beautifully in perhaps the greatest of the stewardship parables, the story of the Good Samaritan. Here a Judean traveler has been attacked, beaten, and left for dead on the side of the road. Others see him, but the cost to them to stop and help is too great. It is a Samaritan, one who is despised by most in the area, that stops, and he gives of his time, talent, and treasure to help the poor victim.

Where the Samaritan was going we cannot know for sure, but he stopped to give his time to the beaten man. Using oil and wine, he bandaged the wounds. Not everyone has the knowledge and skills to care for someone in this manner. Here, he gave of his talent. Then he placed the man on his own animal and carried him to an inn the rest of the day. The following day he pays the innkeeper, yet leaves explaining that if the payment is not enough, when he travels back on through he will repay him whatever the cost. Of course, here he shares his treasure. The sharing of these things is profound enough, but it is the statement of his willingness to pay whatever the balance is that elevates this tale to an ultimate example of stewardship. The Samaritan does not care how high the cost. He will give whatever is needed. This is mature discipleship, to respond to the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost. This is true stewardship.

The Parish Office will close at 12:00 pm on Friday during the months of July and August.
Make All Souls your parish home, today!

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today?

We Love New Members!
Please complete and return the white registration card found in the Narthex of the Church to ensure your official registration at All Souls Catholic Church!

Remembering our deceased diocesan priests

Let us remember the truly remarkable priests who have impacted our lives and especially those deceased priests of the Diocese of Orlando. Let us pray during this month of July for the repose of the soul of:

7  Rev. Arthur Dunnigan  1988
13  Rev. Joseph A. Nolin  2005
18  Rev. Paul Couming  1992
20  Rev. William Gallagher  1999
29  Msgr. Thomas Cannon  2001

Prayer for our Deceased Priests: O God, you raised your servants, to the sacred priesthood of Jesus Christ, according to the Order of Melchisedech, giving them the sublime power to offer the Eternal Sacrifice, to bring the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ down upon the altar, and to absolve the sins of men in your own Holy Name. We beseech you to reward their faithfulness and to forget their faults, admitting them speedily into your holy Presence, there to enjoy forever the recompense of their labors. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please help our Summer Vacation Bible School

We’re praying this summer’s awesome VBS program will touch children’s hearts and lives with Jesus’ love and power. We are asking for some supplies now in order for us to start building our cave setting for the Cave Quest theme program. We are in need of the following:

- 60 – 100 Pool noodles
- Colorful cellophane

Thank you for supplying us with plastic milk jugs and cardboard boxes. Our need for these items has been met. The items may be dropped off at the Parish Office or at the Welcome Desk at the Church. Please mark them “FOR VBS”. Thank you for your generosity!

You’ll soon be able to lock up your friends & family.

Thanks Grace Brooks Ward!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK:

The command of God is not found in some list of prescriptions, rules, or regulations but in our mouths and in our hearts. God’s command is merciful love and our only task is to carry it out. We do this by keeping our relationships in proper order: our relationship with God, our relationship with ourselves, and most importantly our relationship with our neighbor, which our story of the Good Samaritan so aptly underscores.
